House Passes Bill For State-Federal Medical Program

Would Give Oldsters Limited Care; Fight For Expansion Due In Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House today overwhelmingly passed a bill to set up a federal-state program to provide limited subsidized medical care for about 500,000 to one million needy persons over 65.

The roll call vote was 380-23. Passage came after a day of debate in which liberals denounced the bill as inadequate and conservatives of both parties assailed it as unworkable.

Despite these criticism, 244 Democrats and 136 Republicans voted for the election-year measure on the final showdown. Voting against it were 16 Democrats and seven Republicans.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where a determined fight will be made to expand the measure to provide hospitalization and other medical benefits for all elderly persons on the social security rolls. As proposed by organized labor.

DEMO SUPPORT

Some form of the labor-backed plan has received the support of all three of the Democratic senators now in the running for presidential nomination—Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Sens. Stuart Symington (Mo.) and John F. Kennedy (Mass.).

The issue is certain to be an important factor in the forthcoming political campaign. Organized labor already is making it plain that it will not support a candidate who refuses to go along with its plan.

The House-approved bill also falls far short of the rival plan proposed by the administration to set up a voluntary federal-state program of medical aid to the needy aged.

Both the labor and administration proposal would offer benefits to more than half of the 16 million Americans over 65.

NO AMENDMENTS

The House did not get a chance to vote on either alternate plan. It considered the approved measure, a catch-all Social Security bill, under a procedure barring amendments.

The bill also would extend Social Security benefits to 875,000 more workers and make 450,000 aditional persons subject to social security taxes.

In its medical feature, the bill would authorize federal matching grants to states which agree to expand their public assistance programs to include medical care for the aged in the lower income brackets. The program would go into effect July 1, 1961.

It was estimated the plan would cost the federal government 185 million dollars in its first year of operation, with the states putting up an addition 140 million dollars.

The beneficiaries would be elderly people not destitute enough to be eligible for public assistance but still not able

Boy, 2, Saved After Falling In Park Creek

A 2-year-old San Francisco boy, picnicking at Camp Taylor, was saved from drowning this noon by quick application of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation by his parents and by Park Supervisor William Ellison.

Johnnie Gehrke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Gehrke of San Francisco, fell into Papermill Creek at Irving Camp shortly before noon. His parents pulled him out and started mouth-to-mouth breathing.

Supervisor Ellison said the boy was turning blue, his pulse gone and just a faint heart beat when he took over.

"In about five minutes, we got the first yell," Ellison beamed. "We had just had training on mouth-to-mouth resuscitation last year, and this was the first time I had tried it. Boy, there's nothing better than hearing that first yell."

Marin County firemen, headed by Asst. Chief Louis J. Bloom, applied oxygen, and United Ambulance took the boy in good condition to Marin General Hospital for observation.

Rebellious House Kills Rival Plans To Cut Wheat Surplus

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A rebellious House today killed rival Republican and Democratic plans for curbing production of surplus wheat.

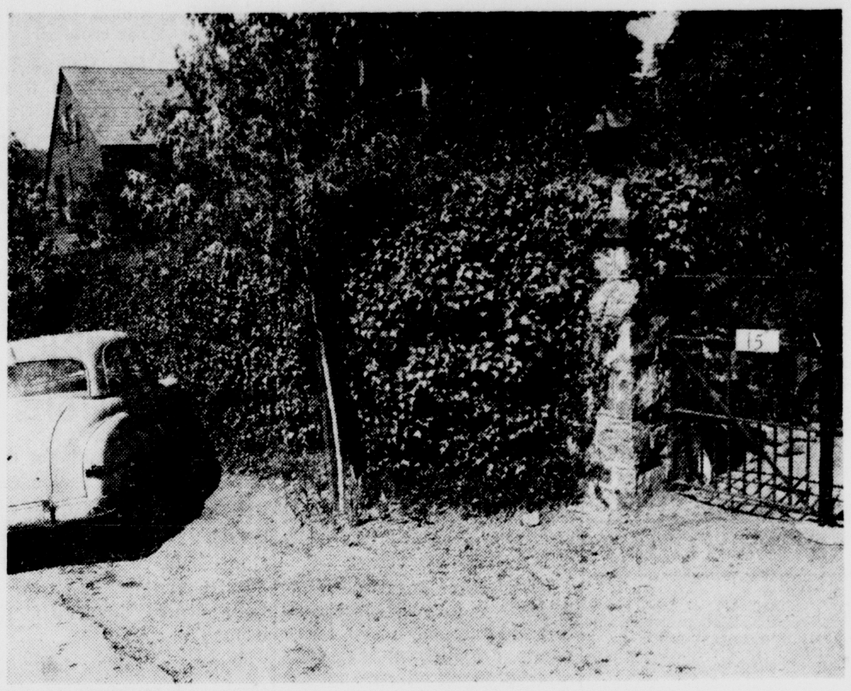
The action apparently dealt a death blow to any chance for election-year legislation to deal with the nation's No. 1 farm problem.

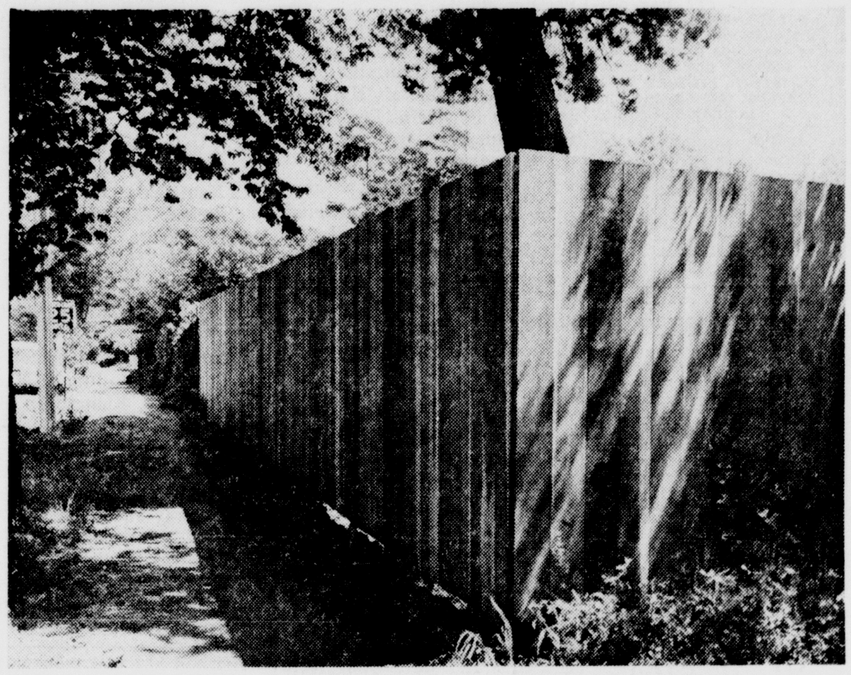
The House first turned down, on a 211 to 195 roll call vote, a Senate-passed bill acceptable to President Eisenhower. This measure was offered by Republicans. It dealt only with wheat and would have forced a 20 per cent cut in plantings without raising price supports.

The house then rejected on a 236 to 170 roll call a price-boosting Democratic bill which the administration opposed.

The Democratic measure would have allowed producers of wheat and other grain crops and oilseeds to subject themselves by majority vote to tighter production controls in exchange for higher price supports.

Price-boosting and surplus-cutting provisions of the Democratic bill which originally applied only to wheat were broadened on the House floor before the final vote to include corn, oats, rye, barley, grain sorghums, soybeans and flaxseed.





THESE ARE ILLEGAL, CITY WARNS

The San Rafael City Council this week ordered a crackdown on enforcement of a largely forgotten ordinance which forbids fences and hedges more than six feet high within 15 feet of the front property line of residences. City Manager Dan E. Andersen said residents would be warned of violations before charges are filed. The hedge at top, at 15 Culloden Park Road, and the fence below, at 11 Rafael Drive, are among many in the city which apparently violate the ordinance. (Independent-Journal photos)

Liberal Editor Declares U.S. Shields Itself From Bad News

By DON KEOWN

The United States tends to insulate itself against bad news from abroad, Cary McWilliams, editor of the liberal publication the Nation, declared in San Rafael today.

McWilliams is in Marin to address the annual public meeting of the Marin Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union, to be held tomorrow at 6 p.m. at the Roger Kent Estate in Kent Woodlands.

The editor asserted that our tendency to place all the blame for such setbacks as the summit talk flop, and the anti-American demonstrations in Japan on Communist agitation, diverts our attention from our own mistakes and shortcomings.

"We're inclined to take a superficial view when we analyze our disappointments," he said. "It is true that the Kremlin deserves and should receive a considerable measure of the blame. But we should also take a franker look at our own errors."

Following his Marin speech tomorrow night, McWilliams plans a short vacation, after which he will cover the Democratic and Republican national conventions for his magazine.

He is unwilling at this point to concede the Democratic nomination to Sen. John Kennedy. The Nation has urged Adlai Stevenson for president, Kennedy for vice president. McWilliams said today he still feels Stevenson has some chance of winning the top spot, although admitting such a development is now unlikely.

McCarey said the nation prefers Stevenson over Kennedy because of his greater maturity, and particularly for his foreign policy views.

"But," he added, "we admire and respect Senator Kennedy and feel he has demonstrated in his campaigning that he is a capable and farsighted national leader."

McWilliams said that "the bubble has burst" as far as the candidacy of Sen. Stuart Symington is concerned.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson, he added, remains in a stronger position.

"His support is more solid than that of Symington and will stay with him," McWilliams believes. "This will put Johnson in a strong bargaining position. But it is extremely unlikely that he can

Rapid Transit Plan Refused Approval

Board Wants To Iron Out Objections

Directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District today refused to give even implied approval to a 900-millon-dollar transit system proposed by their engineers.

By vote of 7 to 6, directors turned down a motion to send to city councils and board of supervisors the recommendations of engineering consultants for a 95-mile transit system serving five Bay Area counties.

MAJOR OBJECTION

Major objection came from director Thomas Casey of San Mateo, who said the directors should iron out obvious objections in the plan before submitting it. He was joined in this view by Marin Director T. J. DeLasaux and five others.

The board agreed to take a bus trip over the entire proposed route, from Terra Linda to Redwood City and from Richmond to Hayward, next Thursday.

The committee on financing laid the groundwork for a plan to spread costs of the line.

OTHER SOURCES

Director Arthur K. Dolan, the committee chairman, joined with General Manager John M. Pierce in urging that other sources of revenue be used for financing construction rather than relying solely on a bond issue. These sources would include gasoline taxes, separate financing for equipment, bridge tolls, etc.

The board received a letter

Fluoridation Action Asked Of MMWD

A proposal that directors of Marin Municipal Water District place a fluoridation measure on the November ballot by board action was rejected last night by three of the directors, although a formal vote was postponed until two absent directors could be present.

The proposal was made by the Children's Dental Health Committee to save the trouble of gathering some 15,000 signatures to get the measure on the November ballot. "Over 36 per cent of the electorate voted yes, so that we know we can if necessary reach our quota," said Mrs. Lillian Loran of Mill Valley, committee chairman.

A fluoridation measure on the June ballot was defeated by 84 votes.

"The board is determined to remain absolutely neutral," declared Director George W. Thierbach of Corte Madera. "We don't propose to step into the picture and put fluoridation on the ballot."

He added that a final decision will not be made until Dr. Leo Stanley and William Marcus, directors absent from last night's meeting, were on hand. The directors meet again on July 13.

LIVES ALONE, LIKES IT

Bachelor Recluse To Mark Century

By DIANA BRUCE

One hundred years is a long time, but not long enough to dampen the independence and self-sufficiency of William Risto.

Risto, a slightly bent old gentleman wearing a cherubic grin and fringe of white hair, topped by a black cap of his own manufacture, tomorrow will be 100 years old.

He was born on June 24, 1860, in Germany.

Today he lives by himself in a small wood frame house, painted with aluminum paint inside and out. It is perched on a tiny lot next to the West Marin School in Point Reyes Station, along with a lean-to, a shed for storing wood and coal, a cess pool, and two water tanks which drain water from the roof.

Risto's solution to the problem of mud is cement. He has cemented his entire front yard in a mildly bumpy fashion.

Risto has been a self-sufficient bachelor all his life.

Only once did he come close to getting married. He was 70 then.

The lady in question was a wealthy widow, also 70. It just didn't sit right with Risto to think that the wife would have the money. "And besides, I didn't have any business getting married at 70," he added. "She was better off to live alone and I was better off alone."

"I never was married and I'm glad of it."

When Risto arrived in San Francisco in 1902, he was counseled to stay away from saloons and "bad houses."

Possible Rabid Animal Killed, Disappears

A possibly rabid squirrel was shot and killed by a deputy sheriff at Marinwood yesterday, but the carcass disappeared before Marin County Humane Society officials got there to pick it up for testing.

Sheriff's Deputy Leo Ballard said several boys stopped him near the Lee Brothers Market in Marinwood and reported a squirrel rolling and spitting. The boys cornered the animal under a log, and Ballard shot it through the head.

The officer left the dead squirrel there and called the Humane Society. Officials at the Humane Society said a man was sent to pick up the squirrel but could not find it.

Dixie Summer School Enrolls 600 Youngsters

More than 600 youngsters are enrolled for the Dixie School District five-week summer session which will start Monday, it was reported last night by Supt. Dennie B. Willis.

The doors of Silveira and Hoffman schools will open for first through seventh graders taking remedial courses and other courses not offered during a regular session, such as typing, Spanish, and advanced science and math. Seven of 22 summer session teachers were hired only last night.

Trustees of the Dixie School District agreed to contribute a maximum of $1,600 to the Terra Linda summer recreation program, and hired Robert Dwyer of San Francisco, a Daly City teacher, to direct summer recreation in Marinwood. His salary will be $800.

Mrs. Kathryn McGregor, who lives in Terra Linda, was hired as school district librarian.

Six new teachers were hired for the fall semester: Billie Lou Argenbright from Mt. Diablo School District, fourth grade, Silveira School; Lida Logan from Texas, first grade, Silveira; Marjorie Miller of Phoenix, Ariz., third grade, Lucas Valley; Emily Salmenson, graduate of the University of Utah, third grade, Silveira; Mrs. Marcia Stroeh, originally from San Rafael, who has taught in Reno, Nev., first grade, Lucas Valley, and Mrs. Patricia Wright, who did practice teaching in Dixie School District and has taught one year in Reno, sixth grade at Santa Margarita.

The trustees also added a new custodian, Herman Dickman of San Rafael.

The trustees authorized Superintendent Willis to file applications with the State Department of Finance so that site grading may be done this summer for a two-kindergarten, 12-classroom school on Trellis Drive in a new Terra Linda subdivision being built by Alameda Homes. The school is scheduled to open in fall 1961.

The trustees also authorized bids to be opened for a $7,000 turfing project at Vallecito School.

A $6,450 contract was approved with the county superintendent of schools for psychological service three days a week for the next school year.

A three-classroom addition at Lucas Valley School was officially accepted.

The board set a final budget session for June 30 at 8 p.m. at the district office. The proposed 1960-61 budget totals $916,000.

Grad's Watch Stolen At Pool

A thief stole a new $80 wristwatch and other valuables from the checking desk at San Rafael High School pool, police reported today.

The watch was a graduation gift of Robert Fisher, 18, of 1112 Second Street, Novato. He went swimming about 5 p.m., Tuesday, checking his valuables at the desk. The watch, sun glasses, and about $5 in cash were placed in an envelope with his name written on the outside, according to Richard Gene Read, who works for the San Rafael Recreation Department.

Police said someone apparently heard his name or knew him. The thief called for Fisher's belongings and took off while Fisher was in the pool.

Driver Stops, Leaps Over Gate Bridge

A driver stopped midspan on the Golden Gate Bridge at 11:30 a.m. yesterday, ran across the sidewalk and leaped over the east railing.

California Highway Patrolman Wallace Erskine, southbound on the bridge, and Don Dulac, a bridge painter, witnessed the leap, the 196th known suicide from the Golden Gate Bridge.

The man was identified from a wallet left in his car as Jay Bruce Storm, a 26-year-old tilesetter, residing at a San Francisco apartment. His driver's license gave an address at 126 Cypress Drive, Fairfax.

A neighbor in the San Francisco apartment house, John Partanzy, said Storm borrowed $1 from him about 10:30 a.m. and had "acted a little different." Partanzy said Storm was separated from his wife.

The Coast Guard searched the waters below the bridge for an hour but did not find a body.

Juvenile Hall Escapee Caught

A 16-year-old Novato youth, enroute to Marin Juvenile Hall on suspicion of driving with a revoked license, escaped briefly this morning but was picked up by San Rafael police near Pacheco Street.

David Fogel, superintendent of juvenile hall, was taking the youth and another boy to the hall. The other boy had an appointment with the county physician. Fogel took the other youngster into the doctor's office, leaving the 16-year-old in the waiting room. He apparently walked away from the waiting room and out the door, for a brief taste of freedom.

Dog Worth $100 Dies Of Poisoning

A Weimeraner dog valued at $100 was poisoned in Novato, the owner reported to sheriff's deputies last night.

Oscar Eldridge Hubbard of 1009 Simmons Lane told Deputy Harold Goerndt that his pet was tied to a chain in front of his home, and the person who poisoned his pet must have entered his yard.

Hubbard returned home from work about 4 p.m. Tuesday and found the dog seriously ill. It died in 45 minutes. A veterinarian said the symptoms indicated strychnine poisoning

Pension Fund Unit Bids Low On Housing

The Longshoremen's Union pension fund, through a corporation headed by two Marinites, appeared likely today to redevelop San Francisco's Western Addition with cooperative apartments.

The ILWU Longshoremen Redevelopment Corp., backed by the fund, outbid such well-known developers as Joseph Eichler and Christopher McKeon yesterday for a three-block, 6.9-acre residential project bounded by Geary, Laguna, Ellis and Webster Streets.

PROPOSED CHANGES

The corporation proposes to develop cooperative apartments, with rentals starting at $95 a month for one-bedroom, $112 for two-bedroom and $135 for three-bedroom units, and down payments of $700. The rental and down payment scale was lower than offered by any of the other developers.

Directors of the corporation, which was formed specifically to build and operate the apartments, are Richard M. Adams of Tiburon, an attorney for the Pacific Maritime Assn.; William H. Glazier of Mill Valley, administrative assistant of the International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's Union, and Joan Fowler of Pacifica, a PMA employee.

MEMBERS OF BOARD

The longshoremen's pension fund is paid and administered by a board set up jointly by the PMA (the employer organization) and the ILWU. Each has three members of the board.

M. Justin Herman of Sausalito, director of the San Francisco Redevelopment Agency, would not commit himself as to whether the ILWU-PMA bid for the project would be accepted. He said bids would be "pretty rigidly screened." But he noted that union pension fund corporations have undertaken such projects in the east.

CHANTICLEER RULES THE ROOST; THERE'S NO BAN ON CROWING

Crowing roosters, reported keeping neighbors awake in the vicinity of Oak Tree Inn at San Geronimo, had more reason to crow today.

Sheriff's deputies checked with the county counsel and the county planning commission and learned that the roosters apparently have a legal right to their roosts.

W. J. Rossi of Oak Tree Inn complained to the sheriff yesterday afternoon. He said some roosters to the rear of the motel and bar crow all hours of the night.

Acting Sgt. George Barnes checked with the county counsel and learned that there is no county ordinance against crowing roosters.

An official of the planning commission reported there is a county zoning ordinance that prohibits roosters in residential areas. But the roosters are located in an area that is not zoned residential, said Sergeant Barnes.

106 Animals Given Rabies Vaccinations

Man, Wife Nabbed For Passing Bad Checks Last Year

A man and wife wanted for passing at least 11 worthless checks in Corte Madera almost a year ago were picked up in Los Angeles and returned to Marin County yesterday to stand trial.

Held in the county jail in lieu of $500 bail each were Orville Charles Briesenick, 47, a salesman, and his wife, Dore Lee Briesenick, 51.

Corte Madera police said Briesenick was arrested in Los Angeles Tuesday night on a charge of drunkenness. Marin authorities were notified after Los Angeles officials checked an all-points hold bulletin on the prisoner issued in April, 1959, by Corte Madera. At the request of officer Harold Hockett of the Corte Madera force, Mrs. Briesenick was apprehended at the couple's residence in Venice.

Briesenick and his wife had passed worthless checks at Littleman Market, Thrifty Drug and the Meadowsweet Motel, Hockett said.

Break-In Fails To Yield Even Bridge Tolls

Sausalito police today arrested an unemployed Oaklander as he snoozed in his auto, and charged him with a burglary of Juanita's Galley that didn't even yield bridge fare.

Robert C. Hill, 39, was arrested by Sgt. David Cooper and Officer Robert Borzone in a car parked off the shoulder of Highway 101 near the Mill Valley turnoff.

The arrest came six hours and 50 minutes after Frank Lathrop, a Sausalito fisherman, telephoned police that there had been a break-in at the waterfront eating place.

VERY HELPFUL

Lathrop proved a very helpful witness.

He said that as he walked up Gate 5 Road to the Galley, he saw a man inside. Thinking it was someone who worked there, he sat down on a bench outside to wait for a man to open the Galley, which usually opens at 2 a.m.

The man walked out, exchanged greetings, got in a car and drove away.

Then Lathrop noticed the door was open. In fact, it had been broken open.

LOOKED INSIDE

He looked inside. The cash register was on the floor.

Lathrop called police.

Robert Ogden, a cook, arrived a little later. He said the cash register is always open, with the drawer out. But all the money had been taken out except a few pennies, he said.

There might have been as many as 50 pennies, he said, but he doubted it.

Hours later, when the officers located the car and aroused Hill, they said he told them he had broken into the Galley to get money for bridge fare back to Oakland (25 cents on each of two bridges). But he got nothing, he said.

Don't Give Nation To Nixon: Kennedy

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts says "I don't think we should turn this country over to Vice President Richard M. Nixon in this critical time."

Kennedy threw away a prepared speech at Camden, N. J., yesterday night to launch his attack on Nixon, the probable Republican presidential candidate.

Kennedy said people on other continents quote men like Woodrow Wilson, Thomas Jefferson, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman. But, he said, they don't quote Nixon.

"We must elect a president who will make people get up in the morning and wonder what he did instead of what Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev did," Kennedy said.

One of Kennedy's strongest opponents for the Democratic nomination, Senate majority leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, took the Senate floor yesterday to lash at administration foreign policy.

"There is a depressing lack of vital new ideas in our foreign policy," he said.

Johnson called for great international programs to stamp out disease, to move food surpluses to hungry areas, to break down communications barriers between people, and to harness water resources in arid regions.

At Sacramento, Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown spoke admiringly of both Kennedy and Adlai E. Stevenson, but left the impression that he leans toward Kennedy.

As a favorite-son candidate, Brown controls California's 81 convention votes, and he has avoided endorsement of any of the leading contenders.

Demo Leaders Try To Revive School Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders today sought to breathe new life into a school construction bill apparently doomed to death by the House Rules Committee.

The committee took both Republican and Democratic leaders by surprise yesterday by refusing to allow the House to seek a compromise with the Senate on school legislation.

With Congress rushing toward adjournment, the committee's action spells doom for the bill this year unless it can be prevailed upon to reconsider the matter.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, who would like to be the Democratic candidate for president, badly wants a school bill to bolster his bid for the nomination.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the probable Republican candidate, is also pushing for passage of a school bill.

Only two courses remain open to backers of the legislation. Either they must prevail upon the committee to reconsider ,or they must induce the Senate to abandon its own bill and act on the House measure.

Peiping Bristles Over K, Calls Capitalism 'Vicious'

TOKYO (UPI)—Red China took issue with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev today by charging that capitalist governments are "vicious and unchangeable" and that the Communist world had no choice but to "organize strength to fight them."

The declaration, published in the official Peiping Peoples Daily and reported by the Communist New China News Agency, served as an open retort to the comparatively moderate line proclaimed by Khrushchev in Bucharest Tuesday.

Khrushchev, speaking at a Romanian party congress in Bucharest, advanced the thesis that a rapidly changing world has outdated some aspects of Marxist-Lenin theory, including the teaching that the existence of capitalism makes war inevitable.

He repeated his theory that the two different systems can get along in "peaceful coexistence."

The Peiping article agreed that the situation in the world has undergone many changes since the time of communism's founders.

But the paper, quoting liberally from the writings of Red Chinese Party Chairman Mao Tse-Tung, stressed "it is impossible to hope that imperialists could be persuaded to be good natured or repent."

Carole Loses Attempt To Disqualify Judge

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The California Supreme Court today refused to disqualify Superior Court Judge Leroy Dawson from the second murder trial of Carole Tregoff, accused as the accomplice of her lover, Dr. R. Bernard Finch, in the killing of his wife.

The joint trial now is expected to get under way Monday. It was postponed twice before because of efforts to disqualify the judge.

Miss Tregoff had claimed that Dawson was prejudiced against her.

The high court turned the red-haired co-defendant down on a request petition raising a peremptory challenge. The court said, however, in a 5-to-2 opinion that Dawson could be disqualified if Miss Tregoff could offer evidence of reasonable cause.

Miss Tregoff is accused along with Dr. Finch, 43, of slaying Finch's wife, Barbara Jean, on July 18, 1959.

The pair was brought to trial, but the jury failed to agree on a verdict.

RISTO

man Hospital, later renamed San Francisco Hospital, told him: "Don't go to saloons. Don't make no friends there with nobody. You go and get work and stay away from bad houses and you're going to get along fine."

Risto took the advice. "Otherwise I wouldn't be here no more."

He has some additional methods of keeping fit at an advanced age.

One is a band made of leather and elastic which buttons to form a circle. He has made several of them and calls them bandages.

When his feet begin to hurt, he simply rolls up a trouser leg and fastens a band over his long underwear like a tourniquet. After a while he can walk again.

He has 14 bottles of rubbing alcohol on hand for another remedy, concocted of rubbing alcohol and garlic. He rubs himself with it every morning and every night.

Exercise is not abandoned either. He constructed his store shed and the two water tanks. Only two days ago he was climbing a ladder to apply black paint tot he roof of his lean-to.

Risto washes his own cloths and prepares his own meals. The meals consist mainly of milk, eggs, tomato soup, very small amounts of sausage he has smoked himself, and juice from canned sauerkraut. The sauergraut juice is "awfully healthy," he says. He eats three times a day, but very little.

He is proud of the fact that he can still thread a needle. Included in his needlework are the "bandages" and little round turban-like black caps which he wears around the house.

He has $511 stashed away in a savings account for his burial. He maintains stoutly that $125 of this sum is accrued interest.

Besides that, he receives a Social Security check of $97.45 a month.

On several occasions Risto has been paid calls by persons trying to get him into the county home in Lucas Valley. This is a sore subject with Risto.

"I don't want to go to Lucas Valley. I want to die right here," he said with more vehemence than usual.

Except for trouble with his feet and being hard of hearing, Risto gives every indication that his own description of being "strong and healthy" is accurate.

"No rest house can replace this," Risto said, as he surveyed the neat interior of his house; a small bedroom, a kitchen graced by a shiny white enamelled stove and a pantry-entrance.

Risto arrived at Point Reyes Station in 1914 and purchased 20 acres of land approximately two miles north of where he now lives. During World War I he farmed, raising chickens, rabbits, potatoes and beets. He took up residence at his present location about 1940.

Back in 1895, when he was farming near Belton in southern Texas, he received his U.S. citizenship papers, forever after renouncing allegiance to the German emperor.

"I received my papers with honor," Risto said.

"If I didn't have my citizenship papers, my God! They would have crucified me that time when they had the war," he chuckled with a wave of the hand.

The Mexican boll weevil was the cause of his move in 1902 from Texas to California.

He worked at a succession of lumber camps, and in 1909 was part of a Western Pacific Railroad crew in the Feather River canyon.

He remembers the L. E. White Lumber Co. at Greenwood in Mendocino County as "the finest company I ever worked for." He ran a circle saw that cut long lengths, aided by two helpers.

Risto expects nothing special to happen tomorrow to celebrate his 100th birthday. "It's just the same, like any other day," he said.

All his relatives have died and he rarely sees his neighbors except on trips to a grocery store.

"Everybody lives for himself," Risto said. "I'm the same. I go in my house and close the door. I don't bother nobody and nobody bothers me."

to afford adequate medical care. Each state would set up its own means test.

The Social Security features of the House-approved bill would:

1. Add about 250,000 persons to the benefit rolls by repealing the requirement that permanently and totally disabled persons must be at least 50 before they can receive payments.

2. Benefit about 600,000 others by lowering the working requirements for coverage.

3. Extend benefits to survivors of covered workers who died before 1940. This would benefit about 25,000 persons, mostly widows 75 years of age or older.

4. Make about 150,000 self-employed physicians subject to social security tax deduction, along with domestic servants and baby-sitters over 16 earning and average of $2 a week from a single employer for as long as three months.

Man Critical After Turning Gun On Self

A San Rafael real estate man who suffered from a nervous breakdown in South Dakota last year, was in critical condition at San Rafael General Hospital today with a gunshot wound through his lungs.

Police said the wound was self-inflicted.

The victim is Lawrence A. DeMots, 58, of 15 Taylor Street. Mrs. Gladys DeMots called for help at 6:30 a.m. when she heard a loud explosion outside and saw her husband sprawled in front of the garage.

Officer Larry Price found DeMots lying face up with a .410 gauge shotgun near the body. The buckshot apparently tore through the chest and lodged in the upper left arm; Price reported.

Doctors operated on the victim from about 7 to 10:30 this morning. His condition was described as critical.

Mrs. DeMots said her husband had been in ill health for some time. Last year, he was confined to a mental hospital in Sioux Falls, S. D. with a nervous breakdown. Police said DeMots was scheduled to go to work this morning as real estate salesman.

TRANSIT

from Marin State Sen. John F. McCarthy in which he declared it would be unfortunate if the district decided against including Marin in initial construction.

McCarthy said deferring the Marin leg of the route would impair the regional concept of the district. Marin is more dependent on rapid transit than any other county, he wrote.

President Adrien J. Falk said he would answer McCarthy's letter, which was not read to the board.

Objections to the plan by engineers Parsons, Brinckerhoof-Tudor-Bechtel, as expressed by Casey, included lack of policy decisions by the board as to whether rights of way would be purchased to the borders of the counties, even though construction might be deferred; possibility of eliminating 138 million dollars allowed for inflation; possible operation of station parking areas by private enterprise, and the bad effect of submitting "a financially unfeasible plan."

Casey said many of these points could be resolved with another meeting of the board and the trip around the district.

The next meeting of the board will be July 14.

EDITOR

win the presidential nomination, and I do not feel he would be interested in running for vice president because his present position as majority leader in the Senate is a more significant one."

McWilliams sees no chance for a Nelson Rockefeller upset of Vice President Richard M. Nixon at the Republican convention.

Of Nixon he said: "We regard him as an able, skillful, shrewd politician with real ability. But we have misgivings about him as a person, and about his convictions."

McWilliams said the Nation will support Kennedy, Stevenson, or Rep. Chester Bowles—"a darkhorse about whom there is more talk in the east than out here on the west coast"—against Nixon.

But should the Democrats choose either Symington or Johnson to run against Nixon, his publication would probably make no choice, the editor said.

Californian McWilliams was a freelance writer and author, with his book, "Witch-hunt," just published back in 1950 when Mrs. Frieda Kirchway, then publisher of the Nation, invited him east to help her put out a special civil liberties edition of the magazine. He remained with the publication.

Journals of liberal opinion have found a much more receptive climate in the U. S. since "the McCarthy era," McWilliams said, and have gained in both circulation and influence.

McWilliams said the Nation is especially popular in college communities and also enjoys a large readership among those responsible for other publications, "thus making our influence felt out of proportion to our circulation."

Tonight at 9 o'clock, McWilliams will appear on KQED (Channel 9) television program, "Profile: Bay Area," to discuss the farm and labor situations.

'Save-The-Teeth' Campaign Started

The Marin Pure Water Committee, which led the drive for defeat of fluoridation in the June 7 primary, is seeking the aid of physicians, dentists and public health officials in a "whole health" approach to the problem of dental decay.

A meeting to set up a "save the teeth" campaign has been called by the committee for Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the conference room of the county health department at Fourth Street and Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

Said Mrs. Elizabeth Franklin of Fairfax, committee secretary, in announcing the meeting:

"Opponents of public water fluoridation are accused of ignoring the problem of dental decay. We wish to establish that, in fact, many of us are and have been long concerned with need for preventive and corrective measures, not only for controlling caries but for establishing a general 'whole health' approach.

"We are convinced that dental decay is but one phase of oral health, as many dentists have emphasized."

She added: "Individual fluoridation, for thise wanting to risk it, should most certainly be made available as part of the proposed program."

The committee, said Mrs. Franklin, seeks to spark an all-out dental health campaign.

Dr. Douglas Kerr, Sausalito dentist, will be among the speakers. He has been invited to address the centennial congress of the Swedish Dental Society in Stockholm in August and the American National Convention of Pedodontists in Los Angeles in October, she said.

Invitations to attend the meeting and participate in the proposed program have been sent to the county health and medical departments, and county medical and dental societies.

Agents Nip Anti-Castro Army In Bud

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Federal agents have broken up what was believed to be a small anti-Castro army preparing to invade Cuba.

It was reported that some 60 young Cubans, recruited in Miami, were taken to a motel at Key Largo Monday night, apparently to await transportation to Cuba, when federal agents stepped in.

Cuban sources said recruiting was done by former henchmen of Fulgencio Batista, who was deposed as Cuban leader by Fidel Castro on Jan. 1, 1959.

Bank's Favor To Fido

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (UPI) — Any dog accompanying his owner to the drive-in facilities of the Alexandria National Bank gets a dog biscuit under a program instituted by E. Guy Ridgely, the bank's executive vice president. He said the idea originated with the bank's policy of passing out lollypops to children.

Woman, 42, Hurt Falling From Car

A 42-year-old Mill Valley woman suffered a possible shoulder fracture when she fell from a moving car early today.

Mrs. Camilla Russo, 42, of 70 Shell Road, Mill Valley, was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital and sent home.

She fell from a car driven by Stanley G. Utzman, 18, of 254 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, as he made a left turn from Meadow Road onto Shell Road, reported the California Highway Patrol. The injured woman was taken to the hospital by Marin Ambulance.

Discussion Postponed On San Rafael City Hall

The San Rafael City Council last night gave tacit approval to a list of street improvements, drainage projects and new traffic signals but postponed discussion of the biggest item in its proposed 1960-61 capital improvement program: $248,000 toward a new city hall.

The council will meet again to scrutinize the proposed 1960-61 budget at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow and at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

The proposed budget, totaling $2,394,182, is to be financed by $1,870,875 in revenue plus a dip into the city's present holding of about one million dollars. The revenue estimate is based on a tax rate of 96 cents per $100 assessed valuation, the same as this year.

Capital improvement projects included are: city portion of the Woodland Avenue Assessment District, $25,000; Cijos Street reconstruction, $10,000; Union Street extension, $20,000; purchase right of way for Third Street improvement, $50,0000. Another $50,000 from gasoline tax revenues is carried over from the current fiscal year for Third Street rights of way.

Public Works Director Norris Rawles promised to get parcel numbers of property on the Third Street right of way lying in unincorporated areas so that the county can get appraisals and purchase unimproved portions of this right of way. The county earmarked $50,000 as its contribution to the Third Street improvement in the current year's budget.

"I'm afraid we're going to lose what we've been promised with the change in the board of supervisors," Mayor John McInnis said.

Three new traffic signals totaling $12,000 are planned for Third and A Streets, Third and B Streets and Fifth Avenue and E Street.

Drainage and flood control projects include the Bret Harte system, $16,000; Grand Avenue storm drain, $25,000; Lindaro storm sewer, $30,000; storm water pumps at Third and High Streets, $60,000; and miscellaneous drainage corrections, $10,000.

Gasoline tax funds are earmarked for Lindaro Street reconstruction, $22,712.

Rawles put in special requests for a new $5,000 sewer rodder and $1,000 for two-way radios in several city trucks.

Rawles requested a $50 a month raise for City Engineer Dominic Selmi, a two-step salary increase for sanitary engineer Jerry Parke, $50 a month increase for two street maintenance foremen, John Robello and Walter Mick, $37.50 a month increases for two equipment operators, and 5 per cent across the board pay increases for all other public works employees.

The council postponed discussion of 5 per cent increases for all city employees.

The Councilmen approved promotion of Mrs. Lillian Vanderbilt, senior accounting clerk in the office of City Treasurer-Tax Collector Angie Soldavini, to Miss Soldavini's deputy and raised her salary from $4,428 to $4,800.

City Clerk W. L. Morgan made a plea for $6,500 to have Remington Rand Corp. set up an alphabetical and numerical filing system covering city council minutes and other documents filed by his office.

Tiff Results In 2 Exhibits At Fair

The Marin Art and Garden Fair will have two exhibits of paintings when it opens June 30 in Ross, it appeared today: One of 62 works of art, and another of 29.

The 62, chosen by a selection jury, will compete for awards. The other 29, chosen by the fair committee, will not.

The double exhibit results from a disagreement between the fair committee and the art jury, it was learned today.

The fair committee, according to Mrs. Marcelle B. McCoy, fair manager, felt the jury had been "too stringent" in its selection of paintings.

The jury, in a letter to Mrs. McCoy, accused the fair committee of violating its own rules.

The letter, signed by four of the five members of the jury, quoted the fair's premium list rule:

"All works will be submitted to a jury of selection and only those works accepted by the jury will be exhibited. All works not accepted by the jury will be removed by the artist from the fairgrounds within 24 hours after receiving notice of rejection."

"Therefore," said the letter, "in fairness to the many fine Marin County artists who submitted their work for selection under the rules of the fair and to ourselves as jurors, we expect to find this most untenable situation either clarified or rectified. In the event our expectations are not realized we must, of course, relinquish any responsibility for its selection so that the integrity of the jury will not be further compromised."

Mrs. McCoy said the "situation had been clarified" in that the additional 29 paintings will not be eligible for awards. Also, she said, the 29 will be styled a "supplementary exhibit" rather than a "complimentary exhibit" as the fair committee had told the art jury they would be called.

The jury objected to the term "complimentary," declaring: "Attaching the term 'complimentary' to any group of paintings could be construed to imply that these paintings are of higher value than the juried paintings and therefore need not be submitted to a jury for selection."

The "supplementary exhibit" will be in the Barn of the Art and Garden Center, said Mrs. McCoy, separated from the juried, competitive exhibit.

The four members of the art jury who signed the letter of protest to the fair manager are Elah Hale Hays of the California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland; William Gaw, retired Berkeley art department director; David Lemon, Belvedere artist, and Harry Crotty, art instructor at College of Marin. Fifth member of the jury was Olive Verna Rogers, former president of the Western Society of Artists.

RICHARD A. LEGG
Named to WADF post

New Inspector General Named For WAFD Bases

Col. Richard A. Legg has been appointed as inspector general for Western Air Defense Force, is was announced today.

Legg will be stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base, headquarters for WADF, but his position will include work throughout WADF bases in California, Oregon and Washington.

He replaces Col. David G. Alford, who was assigned to an overseas post last October. Lt. Col. Harvid Sager has been acting inspector general.

Legg served in Java, Australia and New Guinea and flew 80 combat missions early in World War II. He was in the Pentagon in 1943 as chief of aircraft development and engineering, working on development of the first Air Force jets. He returned overseas to serve in the Mediterranean campaign and fly another 20 combat missions. He was commander of the first jet fighters in Europe with the 36th Fighter Bomber Wing.

His decorations include the distinguished Flying Cross with oak leaf cluster, Air Medal with two oak leaf clusters and Croix de Guerre with palm.

Colonel Sager, acting inspector general, plans to retire. He has had 29 and one-half years of Air Force duty. His last three years of duty have been at Hamilton and he has served two tours of duty on the base. He also has served in the South Pacific, Alaska and Panama as staff officer, material officer and inspector general.

He and his wife reside at 85 Rica Vista, Novato. They have three daughters.

$169,000 Budget Voted For Novato Fire Unit

Novato Fire District commissioners last night approved a budget of $169 950 for the coming fiscal year.

The budget will mean a district tax rate of 69 cents per $100 assessed valuation, compared to the 65-cent rate and $136,180 budget this year.

Next year's budget includes partial payments for a new 1,300-gallon tanker truck and for a system of 19 fire alarm boxes in the business area and near schools.

Directors have said that if the anticipated monies are not raised by the 69-cent rate, some budget items will be cut.

The budget includes $115,000 for salaries, $22,550 for maintenance and $32,600 in capital outlay. Income, other than from the tax rate, will total $200 from St. Vincent's School for boys for fire protection.

CORSAGE IN MAIL

Citrus Fly Detected At Post Office

Interception at the Novato Post Office of a shipment of gardenia corsages from Mississippi infested with citrus white fly was disclosed today by Richard T. Straw, county agricultural commissioner.

The corsages were mailed to a Novato resident from Water Valley, Miss., in violation of a California law against importation of host plants of the citrus white fly, Straw said.

The sharp nose of a Novato Post Office employee resulted in interception of the shipment. Ray Jensen, a postal clerk, detected the odor of gardenias from a package which was not marked "plant material" as required by postal regulations. The package was opened, and the corsages were submitted to the Bureau of Plant Quarantine of the California Department of Agricultural in Sacramento.

Orval A. Vaughan, chief of the bureau, reported to Straw yesterday that white fly was found to be present on the corsages.

Straw, in complimenting the Novato Post Office for intercepting the shipment, pointed out that there have been infestations of citrus white fly in California in the past, which have been eradicated at great expense.

Transit Executive Says Marin Plan Depends On Bridge

The proposed Bay Area rapid transit system will not be extended to serve Marin County unless the Golden Gate Bridge can be utilized to carry the transit trains across the bay.

That was the warning sounded yesterday by Adrien J. Falk, president of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District. Falk was the speaker at the annual meeting of the Marin Industrial Development Foundation, at a luncheon at Rickey's in Ignacio.

Falk pledged his opposition to any move that would leave Marin out of the proposed plan, now under consideration, but noted "one big problem that must be solved—use of the Golden Gate Bridge for rapid transit."

"The country's very best engineering brains," he said, have studied the use of the bridge for transit and all indications to date point to the feasibility of carrying trains under the present highway deck.

Only wind tunnel tests, now in process in New Jersey, remain to be completed before "we have final proof of the safety and feasibility of carrying the trains under the bridge."

But some bridge directors, he observed, have voiced opposition to the move.

"It is up to the people of Marin, if they want to be included in the rapid transit plan, to persuade the bridge directors to cooperate with the transit district," he declared.

"There just isn't any alternative to use of the Golden Gate Bridge," he said.

The foundation members unanimously approved a budget of $20,842 for operations during the 1960-61 fiscal year, presented by Eugene A. Ostaggi, budget committee chairman. Approximately half the necessary funds are expected to be appropriated by the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Fred F. Enemark was re-elected president. Other officers elected yesterday are Elias C. Day, first vice president; Rex T. Silvernale, second vice president; Ray Muir, secretary, and Daniel C. Davis, treasurer.

N.Y. Ousts Nazi

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner harshly vetoed plans for an American Nazi Party rally July 4 in Union Square shortly after the party's "commandant" was mobbed yesterday.

Nazi leader George Lincoln Rockwell of Arlington, Va., was hustled out of town for his own protection a scant half-hour before Wagner denied a permit for the rally in the interest of law and order.

Terming Rockwell a "half-penny Hitler," Wagner said he denied the permit on the ground that Rockwell's race-baiting would incite a riot.

Laborites Against U.S. Rocket Bases

LONDON (AP) — In a major switch in its defense policy, the British Labor party is urging that nuclear rocket bases in Britain—but not bomber bases—be denied to the United States.

A policy statement from the minority party's executive committee last night also proposed:

1. That Britain make no more nuclear weapons, relying instead on American nuclear power as a deterrent to aggression.

2. That the United States pledge never to use the hydrogen bomb without prior approval by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

3. That Western patrol planes "in present world circumstances" not carry H-bombs.

WORRY OVER STATE

Supervisors Rule Out Nick's Cove Charges

A policy decision for no further charges for boat facilities at Nick's Cove in Miller's Park on Tomales Bay was made by 3-1 vote of the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

Supervisor James Marshall vainly held out for delay until next week because he felt the private operators of the area should be invited to appear before the board.

But Supervisor William Gnoss of Novato was frankly worried because of intimation that the California Department of Fish and Game would not spend money on a ramp at Black Point so long as Marin County was the only holdout against state policy of free use of tax-supported boating facilities.

Philip A. Douglas, field agent for the board, explained that facilities for which the board had put in money should not carry a charge, although it would be all right for concessionaires to make charges for other services.

He said agreements for installation of a Nick's Cove ramp with $41,237 contribution from the state, as well as some parking, clearly state that no charge will be made. Under questioning, he indicated that unless such policy were adopted, there was small likelihood of further outlay by the board in Marin County.

Gordon Dixon, director of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, pointed out the growing use of small boats in Marin County, with an assessed value of $150,000 last year. He said he understood the state board would "wash its hands" of the Black Point project unless a no-charge policy were voted.

"What does the county do for these people? Just take taxes!" said Dixon of the boat owners.

Supervisor Vera Schultz observed that "there is an obligation to the state."

Peter Bertoni, president of the Marin Rod and Gun Club and Jack O'Connell concurred in the same discussion favoring the abolishment of the boat ramp charges.

When Marshall still held out for continuation until next Tuesday, Dixon said, "You're not going to get any farther by waiting just to let these fellows blow off steam." Mrs. Schultz then moved that the charge made for parking be dropped at Nick's Cove, Chairman Walter R. Castro seconded and Gnoss agreed. Marshall dissented. Supervisor William D. Fusselman was absent.

Another motion provided for giving a necessary 30-day notice to a ramp operator.

Mrs. Schultz then moved that the county administrator be authorized to apply to the board for installation of lights and water at Nick's Cove, which passed.

Pension Plan Of Congress Sweetened

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress has passed a bill to sweeten its own pension system.

The bill passed the House in one minute yesterday and was sent to President Eisenhower. The bill, after some amendment, had been passed by the Senate last month by a 5-3 vote—not many senators were around at the time.

The measure would allow former congressmen to qualify for pensions by working in other government agencies to fill out the minimum requirement of five years' service. It also applies to some veteran congressional employees.

Under the pension system members of Congress contribute 7½ per cent of the $22,500 salary to the pension fund.

Convict Slashed; Another Cuts Arm

A Los Angeles felon was found knifed in his cell at San Quentin Prison at 5:30 p.m. yesterday, and three and one-half hours later a Fresno killer was found bleeding from cuts in a prison hospital bed.

The two instances of violence were unrelated, said Associate Warden Dale B. Frady.

Pedro A. Velasquez, 24, serving six months to 10 years from Los Angeles for assault with force, was stabbed by a fellow felon, whom he has refused to identify, said Frady.

Esparza F. Yanes, serving five years to life for second degree murder in Fresno, tried to take his own life, the prison official said.

Velasquez was found bleeding from five superficial cuts in the chest when the cells were locked after dinner. Frady said it had not been determined whether the attack occurred before or after Velasquez reached his cell block.

He was held in the prison hospital today, but the cuts were not serious, the official reported.

Yanes was found bleeding in his bed in the tubercular ward of the prison hospital at 9 p.m. Arteries on the inside of his left arm had been slashed. Frady said it was believed a razor blade was used.

Yanes had been returned to San Quentin only two days ago from the California Medical Facility at Vacaville. He first entered San Quentin in November, 1958.

He was returned to the tubercular ward today after surgery.

Bonn Arrests War Criminal

BONN (UPI) — The West German government announced today it had arrested another notorious war criminal, Wilhelm Koppe, a general in the crack SS Nazi corps accused of murdering more than 300,000 persons.

Koppe, the tough police general who helped run the Nazi occupation of Poland when Adolph Eichmann was ordering the extermination of 6 million Jews, was one of several former Nazi officers who have been reported arrested since Israeli agents seized Eichmann in Argentina.

Koppe had the rank of an SS general and "General of Police." He was police chief in the "Reich gau Wartheland" and chief of police in the "general Polish government" set up in Poland during the Nazi occupation.

Robert Fulton patented in 1794 a mill for polishing marble.

Master Plan For Tiburon Area Gains

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council last night decided no significant change in the peninsula's master plan should be recommened to the Marin County Planning Commission at this time.

Focal point of the discussion was access roads leading up to the proposed ridge route. Developers in the area, including William H. Rafter and Bruce E. Moody, feel the access roads under the present plan are unrealistic and will interfere with development.

Rafter would eliminate the ridge route because of its attraction for Sunday drivers.

The council felt the plan should remain basically unchanged and individual problems should be met as they arise.

The group approved plans for the 18-acre McNaught planned residential area behind the Southern Marin Recreation Center.

David Van Pelt, county planner, explained the proposed plan for Naval Net Depot Annex. This area, now owned by the county, will be developed as a park.

Mrs. Stanley V. Dick was elected council secretary. The Paradise Property Owners application for membership was approved.

84.5 MILLION IN U.S. HAVE DRIVER PERMITS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A record 84,000 Americans held driver's licenses in 1959, the Bureau of Public Roads reported today.

This meant there were about six drivers for every five registered motor vehicles. In Montana and Nevada there were slightly more vehicles than drivers.

The number of licensed drivers was about three million, or 3½ per cent, higher than in 1958. It included holders of chauffeur's, truck driver's and taxi licenses.

California, second in population, led the states in drivers with 8,154,462. Second was New York, most populous state. Pennsylvania was third, followed by Illinois, Michigan, Ohio and Texas in that order. Each had more than four million drivers.

Military Relay Satellite Planned

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army and Air Force plan to launch next month an experimental satellite designed to relay military communications, informed sources said today.

The newest space venture now planned by the Armed Forces would follow the highly successful orbiting by the Navy and Air Force yesterday of the Transit II-A navigation satellite.

Teachers Told To Keep Their Standards Up

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The teaching profession must raise its own standards so high that misfits will be weeded out long before they reach the classroom, says a California educator.

Dr. Samuel B. Gould, chancellor of the University of California at Santa Barbara, told an education convention the first step should be an active campaign to recruit the best possible teacher candidates. The best place to recruit them, he said, is in the classroom—and the earlier the better.

Gould told the National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards last night that many students in schools and colleges of education have no business going into teaching.

Gould said good teachers should be smart, temperamentally suited to teaching and anxious to teach.

No teacher is worth his salt if he doesn't demand that his pupils work at the peak of their capacity, the chancellor said.

34 Bay Executives Form Company To Assist Newly Developing Firms

A group of 34 Bay counties executives has organized the Sierra Capital Co., 260 Kearny Street, San Francisco, to make investments under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958.

Its purpose will be to assist in the development of new companies which are locally organized and managed and considered to be capable of substantial expansion but without recourse to capital funds or long term borrowings to help them in the early stages of their growth.

Stockholder members have been picked from the fields of management, engineering, finance, law, real estate, insurance and accounting. It is felt that this fund of varied experience on tap will be helpful to customers in policy planning and other basic problems.

Sierra Capital Co. will have $450,000 immediately available for investment but expects to develop even larger capital funds through direct participation of stockholders and syndication with other investment groups.

So far the firm has screened over several situations and has approved risk type loans to a San Francisco electronics firm and a Richmond manufacturer of instruments for biochemical research.

PROPERTY BUYERS should give careful consideration to building and maintenance costs when investing in marshland sites and hillside lots.

So warned soils engineer Richard Harding of San Rafael in a talk Tuesday morning before the Marin County Real Estate Board. The subject of his discussion was the influence of sub-surface soil conditions on land values.

Soils engineers cannot peer below the surface of the ground better than anyone else, he said, but they are able to forsee problems of settling and slippage and recommend how to cope with them effectively.

As and example of careful preparation of a ground site for building he cited the location of the Fairchild electronic plant where it was necessary to put extra fill into slough that crossed the property, and accelerate ground settling before laying the foundation.

Harding also spoke about the proper excavation of hillsides in relation to hard rock, residual soil and topsoil. He stressed the need for correct drainage to avoid subsequent soil erosion and slides.

NEW OWNER of Wes Walker's former Texaco station at 45 Camino Alto, Mill Valley is Benjamin S. Jackson, one-time automobile mechanic with G. K. Hardt, Santa Rosa automobile dealer. Name of the station will be changed to Ben Jackson's Texaco Service. The station has been repainted and Jackson will do tune-up and light repair work.

Walker is now employed by B and B Auto Parts in Corte Madera.

SALE OF Prischmann's Union Service, 5378 Redwood Highway, Ignacio, to Roger B. Ringer, former automotive engineer and purchasing agent with Chrysler Corp. in Detroit, has been consummated and renamed Ringer's Union Service.

Ringer, his wife Mary and three children are newcomers to Marin and now live in the Golf and Country Club Estates, Ignacio.

The adjoining coffee shop to be known as Ringer's Coffee Shop is to be managed by Mrs. Ringer.

LOCAL PERSONALITIES. Back from New York City where he attended a field advisory board meeting of the Guardian Life Insurance Co. of America last week is Stanley B. Brooks, 14 Madrone Way, Kentfield. Brooks is manager of Guardian's San Francisco office. . . . Robert R. Lollick, 10 Mabry Way, Santa Venetia, on the staff of the First National Bank of San Rafael will attend the eighth summer session of the three-year school for bank auditors and comptrollers to be held from July 31 to Aug. 13 at the University of Wisconsin.

TENNIS STAR VIEWS FUTURE CLUB SITE

Tony Trabert (second from left), 1955 national tennis champion, looks over weed-filled field which soon will be location of tennis courts centering the Rafael Racquet Club development. Displaying plans at right is Hal Wagner, Mill Valley Tennis Club professional and partner in the development with Jack Farrar (left) and William Batey (second from right). The club will have a collegiate sized swimming pool as well as tennis courts. Completion of clubhouse is slated Sept. 1, with public ground breaking ceremony set for 11 a.m. Saturday. Site is just within San Rafael, reachable via Fifth Avenue or Forbes Avenue in San Anselmo.

State's Books Show Surplus Cash On Hand

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California began making money last month for the first time this fiscal year and if things continue that way, the state is in for a sizeable surplus.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown has predicted that the surplus figure should reach the 100-million-dollar mark when books close on fiscal 1959-60 at the end of this month.

Yesterday, State Controller Alan Cranston announced that general fund revenues for the 11-month period ending May 31 totaled $1,380,449,317. This was the first time revenues overtook expenditures, which were $1,292,323,694 for the same period. There was a cash balance of $88,125,623.

Cranston reported two reasons for May's heavy flow into the general fund:

1. Final clearance into the state treasury of personal income tax payments.

2. Quarterly sales tax receipts.

The sales tax, Cranston said, produced about half the general fund revenue, or $693,292,978. This was up nearly 13 per cent from last year's figure for the same period.

Marin Building Slump Not Shared In Bay Area

Although building in Marin slumped sharply in April, as compared with the same month a year ago, construction activity in the Bay Area as a whole was higher than last year.

This is shown in figures released today by the U.S. Department of Commerce on building permits this April

Marin's total for the fourth month of this year was $3,535,000, compared with $8,084,000 for April, 1959.

The nine-county Bay Area total was $82,585,000, compared with $80,435,000 for April, 1959.

A huge gain in San Francisco offset losses in five of the nine counties. San Francisco building permitsw this April totaled $14,547,000; last April, only $5,326,000.

Gains were recorded also in Sonoma County ($1,412,000 compared with $1,115,000 last year), Santa Clara County ($29,375,000 compared with $27,623,000) and Contra Costa County ($9,450,000 compared with $8,448,000).

Alameda County slipped from $16,430,000 last April to $11,137,000 this April; Napa County, from $967,000 to $856,000; Solano County, from $1,684,000 to $1,559,000; San Mateo County, from $10,760,000 to $10,723,000.

All Marin's incorporated cities had less building activity than last year expect San Rafael, which issued permits for $1,494,000 in April of 1960 against $1,233,000 in April, 1959.

LITTLE THEATER FILM

Sausalito's Going To Britain Via TV

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Sausalito will go to England this fall by television at the time of the presidential election.

And the John Brebner family of Sausalito will be one of the highlights — along with scenes from the Sausalito Little Theater's current melodrama, "East of the Rockies."

The Sausalito program is to be one of a series of six half-hour TV films depicting various aspects of life in the United States. The series is called "America — 1960."

Associated Television of Great Britain is making the series. This firm produces programs for the commercially sustained independent TV network in Great Britain, which is in competition for viewers with the government-operated British Broadcasting Co.

The crew — made up of a producer, writer, interviewer, two cameramen and a secretary — will watch the dress rehearsal of "East of the Rockies" tonight at the theater. After a full showing, they will choose which parts they wish to shoot for their film.

Brebner is director of the play, Mrs. Brebner is producer-manager.

The emphasis of the interview type show, according to Brebner, will be on what ordinary people do in this country. "It is a people-to-people impression," he said.

The six samples are to include a film on racial segregation in the south (Atlanta, Ga.); a film accenting industrial relations at an automobile plant (Lansing, Mich.); one in a small agricultural town which compares to a great many in England (Salina, Kan.).

One interview will attempt to show how easy it is to entertain informally in America (Summit, N. J.). This shows how a party, initiated at about 2 p.m., comes off at 6 p.m. with complete aplomb.

Associated Television hopes to round off the series with San Francisco, Brebner said, as the city which looks toward the Far East.

Sausalito's part in the series centers around the Brebners — John, his wife, Ann, and Alexander, 11 weeks.

The television company is interested in the Brebners as immigrants, Brebner said, in telling the English how English people live in the United States. "The British will find out what we have done since we arrived, what our standard of living is, what we pay for food, what our opportunities are in the field of the theater and what are our child's opportunities, including the schools," Brebner said.

The Brebners are Americans transplanted from England, and as such, will be used as TV examples of how English people live in the United States. Brebner, 37, came to the United States in 1950 on a Fulbright scholarship to Stanford University. He and his wife, a New Zealand native whom he met when she was his drama student at the Old Vic Theater in London, returned here to live in 1953. They resided first in Fairfax. They returned to England in 1955 when Brebner worked as producer-director of television programs with James Bredin, producer of the current six-city series.

Then, Mrs. Brebner said, "we simply got homesick for California, particularly Sausalito. We sold our house in London and returned in 1956 to stay."

They have since resided in Sausalito at 317 South Street.

Brebner is acting with the San Francisco Players Guild. He directs in Sausalito, Ross Valley Vallejo and San Francisco. His wife teaches speech and drama at Dominican Upper School.

MARINITES FILMED FOR BRITISH TV VIEWERS—The John Brebner family of Sausalito appears in television roles of how a former English family lives in America for series to be released near election time on commercial television in Great Britain. Grouped in Brebner living room during filming are (from left) Alison Praessor, production assistant; Bryan Magee, researcher and writer; Mr. and Mrs. Brebner; James Bredin, producer; Ian Trethowan, commentator, and Julian Townsend, cameraman—an American hired by the British team. A Ringer

HILO, Hawaii (AP)—Mrs. William E. Mayer's wedding ring slipped from her finger into 14 feet of water as she floated in the ocean on an inflated rubber mattress. Her husband immediately donned underwater face mask, dived in and found the ring.

Kidding Around

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Sheep raiser Will McKerrow received considerable attention at the Wisconsin State Fair with an Oxford ram lamb billed as an "Early American Sheep." The animal sported a Mohican haircut—sheared except for a six-inch strip running down its back—and a feather over one ear.

Blaze Put Out In Wrecked Cars

Thick, black smoke poured from a pile of old car bodies at the Bay Auto Wreckers near Richardson Bay Bridge for about three hours last night, visible to motorists on Highway 101.

Capt. Frank Machado of Marin City fire station said three fire units poured 3,000 gallons of water on the wrecks trying to put the fire out. First the firemen had to pull several cars off the top of the pile to get down to the cars causing the smoke.

Machado said the fire was probably caused from a spark from an acetylene torch used to cut the cars during the day.

Police Oblige

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The voice on the telephone told the officer at the police station, "Send two of your biggest, toughest men out here. I'll whip 'em both."

Patrolmen Hugh Gibbs and C. W. Cobb answered the call.

The caller, Charles Malone, 24, tried to keep his promise, the officers reported, but after a scuffle they brought him in on a public drunkeness charge.

Annexation Makes Houston Biggest City

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston City Council voted yesterday to make Houston the largest city in the world in area even though Mayor Lewis Cutrer called the idea "preposterious."

The council voted to annex about 1,100 square miles, which is everything not annexed by some other Harris County city. The annexation would give Houston an area of 1,560 square miles, largest in the world.

A second and final reading of the annexation ordinance will be held within about 30 days.

On the basis of preliminary census figures Houston is the sixth largest city in the nation in population with 932,680 residents, an increase of 56.4 per cent since 1950. The population of the Houston metropolitan area is estimated at 1,232,179.

Grand Old Man Of Local Coaches Retires After 39 Years On Job

San Rafael Military Academy won't quite be the same any more.

The dean of Marin County coaches and the grand old man of the Academy is calling it quits.

We're speaking, of course, of Hank Mobley, one of the finest gentlemen ever to come across Marin's sports trail.

HANK MOBLEY

At the age of 66, and with 39 years of coaching at the Academy, Hank decided recently to step to the sidelines in retirement. It became official on graduation day, June 11.

We rather imagine that even in retirement, Mr. Mobley will be a regular visitor on the SRMA campus. It's part of his life—or rather, he is part of the Academy and always will be.

We've always had a warm spot for Ol' Hankus because of his gentlemanly approach to everything, press relations included. He has won his high mark in the coaching ranks, not because of successful won-lost records, but because of his and his team's tremendous sportsmanship.

After 39 years on the job Mobley has acquired a wealth of memories. Perhaps one of his prized mementoes is a photograph, autographed thusly: "With sincere best wishes to a great coach—my first."

It was signed by William "Killer" Kane, one of the Academy's most illustrious alumni who went on to the Naval Academy at Annapolis to carve his name in Navy's great athletic annals. Captain Kane, who won the Naval Academy's highest athletic award—the Congressional Sword—died a few years ago in an airplane tragedy.

The past five years of Mobley's career at the Academy were spent in the capacity of director of athletics—he left the ulcer-inducing coaching work to the younger members of the staff. However, never one to sit still and loaf, Hank was on hand to offer advice and do any odd chores that presented themselves, sweeping out the locker room included.

Two years ago Hank was felled by a heart attack, but the old war horse came back strong after three months.

A native of Stockton, Mobley's father was a Presbyterian minister, Dr. D. A. Mobley, whose initials "DAM" gave the neighborhood kids a big joke.

Hank came to Marin to attend school at San Rafael Military Academy—then known as the Mt. Tamalpais Military Academy—and graduated in 1913.

After service in the U.S. Army, including duty in the Mexican war, Hank attended University of California and came back to his alma mater as assistant to coach Jimmy Dean in 1921. He attended Andy Smith's coaching schools in 1921-22 and 23, preparing for the role he was to hold until June 11.

In 1929 Hank married the former Cecelia Schneider. "It was quite a courtship," said Mrs. Mobley yesterday with a laugh. "We first met in 1916, but didn't get married until 1929. Took me quite a time to catch him."

Mrs. Mobley smiled warmly, and with a twinkle added: "But it was quite a catch. I got quite a guy and I'm proud of everything he's done."

So is the San Rafael Military Academy. As we said, the place just won't quite be the same any more.

WE'VE HEARD of golfers getting a birdie, but this is the first time a birdie ever got a ball.

It happened recently during a ladies guest day tournament at Marin Golf Club when Mrs. Wishard Brown of Greenbrae was playing in a foursome that included Barbara Dawson, Nancy McCall and Virginia McIlraith.

Mrs. Brown slammed a beautiful tee shot down the sixth fairway, outdistancing the shots of the other trio. While she waited her turn, Mrs. Brown shrieked in disbelief when a big black bird swooped down to scoop up her ball and take off. Well, dearies, you should have heard the screams all over the valley as the ladies chased the black feathered culprit toward the green, of course (these gals will try anything for a birdie). Well, our big black friend circled teasingly over the green, but suddenly flew off into the hills with Mrs. Brown's Dunlop clamped proudly in his bill.

Somewhere in the hills of Loma Verde there's a great big nest, with a great big family. Ma and Pa Blackbird and those crazy, mixed up eggs.

Palmer, Snead Lead By 9 In Ireland

PORTMARNOCK, Ireland (AP) — Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead, the favored American pair, took a nine-stroke lead over the defending Canada Cup golf champions from Australia today with a combined total of 140 for the first 18 holes. Palmer, U.S. Open and Masters' champion, shot a 69 and Snead a 71.

Palmer came in with a 33 on the back nine for a 36-33-69, three under par. Snead was 35-36—71, one under.

Snead left an eight-foot putt hanging on the edge of the cup at the 18th.

Palmer, who rallied after a slow start, also missed his birdie putt by inches on the 16th after being distracted by photographers.

When he was getting set for the putt, he pulled away suddenly and glared into the crowd. "Cameras," he said. "I give up."

The camera men again were cautioned not to click their machines while a player was shooting.

ARNOLD UPSET

Palmer had glared at a photographer when he was disturbed on the first hole and threw his putter to the ground and walked off the green after missing a putt on the fifth.

Peter Thomson shot a 35-38—71 and his Australian partner, Kel Nagel had a 39-37—76 for a total of 149.

Koichi Ono of Japan shot a 38-37—75 and Sukemasa Shimamura 36-38—74 for a total of 149 for the first 18 holes of the 72-hole tournament.

Both team and individual championships are awarded.

Skins Trade Ed LeBaron

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington Redskins today traded veteran quarterback Eddie LeBaron to the Dallas Cowboys, newest entry in the National Football League, in return for two draft choices.

LeBaron was the Redskins' No. 1 quarterback for eight years, but announced his retirement to practice law at the end of last season.

He changed his mind about retiring provided he could be traded to Dallas, since he plans to pursue his legal career in Texas.

Li'l Giants Lose Pair Despite Home Run Binge

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Tacoma Giants tried their long ball in the Spokane Indian tepee last night, but got scalped. Despite eight RBI on six Tacoma homers, the Indians downed their Pacific Coast League rivals 5-4 and 8-5.

The losses dropped the Giants into third place behind Sacramento even though the Solons were edged by Seattle 2-1.

The Vancouver Mounties stretched their winning streak to five games with an 8-1 drubbing of San Diego while Salt Lake City posted a 7-5 win over Portland.

Dusty Rhodes hit a two-run homer for Tacoma in the opening frame of the first game and socked a solo homer in the nightcap. Tom Haller also lashed out a circuit clout in the opener and Bob Perry had solo homers in each game. Matty Alou gave the Giants two runs in the nightcap with a four-bagger.

Spokane spotted the Giants a four-run lead in the first game then picked up three counters of their own in the sixth inning. Earl Robinson's lead off-homer in the seventh tied the score and Curt Roberts won it with a bases-loaded squeeze bunt.

Spokane piled up a 5-0 lead in the nightcap before the Giants could score and they had two more runs before Tacoma's Alou and Rhodes uncorked their homers for a three-run sixth. Pitcher Chuck Churn, relieved in the opener, came back to hold the Giants hitless the last 2⅓ innings.

Jenkins Copies Olympics Theme In His Pro Debut

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Olympic champion David Jenkins made his professional ice skating debut last night with a carbon copy of the routine that won him a Gold Medal at Squaw Valley in February.

Jenkins' debut—in the opening of the Ice Follies here—was pretty much of an Olympic show. There was an Olympic crest on his costume and a big poster with "Squaw Valley" in huge letters and the Olympic rings in the background.

The only non-Olympic feature: eight beautiful girls dressed in white parkas who flanked the poster.

Jenkins' routine, which lasted five minutes, consisted of free-style skating, climaxed by his triple back loop jump—a leap with three spinning revolutions in mid-air.

He said the performance was the same seen at the Squaw Valley Olympics.

Jenkins was asked if he thought the emphasis on the Olympics—especially the use of the crest and the traditional five-ring symbol—was contrary to the spirit of the games.

He replied that he didn't know, but the producers of the show were checking on it. If Olympic officials object, the format will be changed, he said.

L.A. Makes Pitch For Return Title Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—While Floyd Patterson basks in his newfound glory and Ingemar Johansson vacations in Florida, the battle continues over the site of their third fight.

Los Angeles weighed in yesterday with a wire to Bill Fugazy, a director of Feature Sports, Inc., offering the huge Memorial Coliseum and full cooperation.

Fugazy who wants to run the fight in late September or early October, replied to the Los Angeles proposition and sent similar wires to Chicago and Dallas. He said he was interested in further discussions if assured of adequate police protection for the fight.

The police protection item may result in the third Patterson-Johansson heavyweight title fight moving out of New York.

Stephen Kennedy, New York police commissioner, replied to Fugazy's criticism of inadequate police protection for the Monday night fight and said the police will not be used as "bouncers, ticket takers of ushers to assist fight promoters who chisel on expenses."

Fugazy claimed he had 635 gatemen, ticket takers, watchers, ushers, supervisors and special policement working at the Polo Grounds at a cost of $25,000. He claimed between 15,000 and 20,000 crashed the gate and estimated the actual crowd at about 55,000 instead of the official 31,897 announced by the New York State Athletic Commission.

The crowd swarmed into the ringside working press section after the fifth round knockout victory by Patterson.

All the talk about a third fight could be academic. The tax situation might make it impossible. Depending on the income of the two fighters from Monday's bout, estimated by the theater TV people at between $800,000 and $900,000, they would be fighting for practically nothing but the tax people if they went again this year.

2 U.S. Gals Advance At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI)—Darlene Hard of Montebello, Calif. and Janet Hopps of Seattle, Wash. surged into the fourth round in women's singles today at the Wimbledon tennis championships with straight-set triumphs.

Miss Hard, seeded No. 2 behind defending champion Maria Bueno of Brazil, walloped Frances Walton of England, 6-1, 6-0.

Miss Hopps, U.S. Wightman Cup captain, ousted Florence De La Courtie of France, 6-4, 6-1.

Rain delayed the start of the fourth day's play and interrupted the action again after Miss Hard and Miss Hopps won their matches.

Despite rain and thunderstorms in the area, about 18,000 spectators were on hand

Well, What Now, Horace?

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—What's the next step?

That's the question President Stoneham probably is asking himself today after his San Francisco Giants dropped their fourth straight last night, 7-4, to the sizzling Milwaukee Braves.

Last week the Giant prexy responded to four straight setbacks by replacing Manager Bill Rigney with chief scout Tom Sheehan. And the team was in second place then—just four games back of league-leading Pittsburgh.

Today the Giants are six and one-half games behind the Pirates, and trail the second-place Braves by three.

Sheehan continued to shuffle his lineup last night, bringing in Hobie Landrith to catch, placing Willie McCovey back on first base and injecting Willie Kirkland in the cleanup spot.

McCovey was dropped to sixth position from his customary fourth batting spot so the fleeter boys—Orlando Cepeda and Kirkland—could have first crack at the base paths.

"When he (McCovey) gets on, it takes a helluva wallop to get him home—ol' Willie just isn't that limber on his feet," Sheehan explained.

RODGERS AT SS

Sheehan also has Andre Rodgers back at shortstop — where he played the first half of last season—replacing the slumping Ed Bressoud.

Billy O'Dell went after his third win against seven defeats today as the Giants attempted to regain their early-season league-leading form. San Francisco now has lost 12 of its past 16.

Warren Spahn was slated for Milwaukee mound duty in the series finale. He's 4-4 this season.

Veteran Lou Burdette got credit for last night's victory—his eighth — to become the Braves' winningest pitcher.

But San Francisco bats routed the crafty righthander in the eighth with two out. A bunt by Don Blasingame, consecutive doubles by Jimmy Davenport and Willie Mays—his second of the game—and Kirkland's single produced three runs to make it 6-4. Then Don McMahon came in to put out the fire.

Johnny Antonelli lost his fourth straight and got touched for 10 hits in five innings. But his fast ball after the third looked better than it has all season. It was during the first two frames, when he tossed mostly curves and change-ups, that the Giant hurler got pounded for four runs and six safeties. The Braves added one more tally in the fifth to make it 5-0.

Billy Bruton slammed an inside-the-park homer off Stu Miller in the seventh after rightfielder Kirkland failed in a shoestring catch attempt.

Mays, now third among National League batters with a .343 percentage, extended his hitting string to eight consecutive games.

MEATY SUBJECT — Tom Dixon, meat buyer for United Markets, used a pound of ground beef for a tee as he showed golfing form to fellow employees Mrs. Essie Bellante and Joe Saccone at the San Rafael store yesterday. Marin Golf Champion Preps For Shot At Nat'l Publinx

By JIM GILMARTIN
I-J Sports Editor

Down among the liver sausage, chuck roasts, ground beef and filets at United Market in San Rafael you may have noticed a tall, dark and handsome young man.

His name is Tom Dixon, age 31. Occupation: meat buyer for the United chain.

He also is a golfer of some note, so good, in fact, that on July 8 he will be winging across the Pacific to Hawaii where he will compete in the National Public Links Championships.

Tom is one of 11 northern Californians who qualified for the big event. In fact, he and Jack Lotz of Alameda each scored 148 for 36 holes to tie for medalist honors in recent qualifying rounds at Harding Park in San Francisco. It was the second straight Nat'l Publinx qualiflying medal for Dixon, although he had to pass up the finals last year because United was opening its San Anselmo store and he had to stay on the job during that busy period.

This year Tom played it smart, arranging his vacation to correspond with the National Publinx. Thanks to his sharpshooting at Harding, he'll have an all-expenses paid trip to Hawaii. Wife, Beverly will tag along for moral support.

"We're really looking forward to this trip," Dixon enthused. "Boy, they tell me Hawaii is going to really give the golfers a royal time while we're there. You know, dinners and all sorts of parties."

GRUELLING TEST

Of course, the tournament is no picnic, Tom points out. Play opens with 36 more holes of qualifying July 11 and 12. Then the match play grind begins July 13 — two matches a day until you're eliminated or reach the finals. The champion and runner-up will have played seven matches in four days.

"It requires great physical condition," Dixon noted. "I've worked hard to condition myself for the grind. Practice every chance I get — after work, after dinner, weekends."

Dixon is a modest type and won't talk much about his golfing accomplishments. Although he took up the game only nine years ago, he's accumulated dozens of trophites and his home at Westlake in the city is bulging with hardware. Some of the cups have made excellent toys for his daughter, 6, and son, 4.

Dixon's strong game is from tee to green. Although he won't boast of his power, his pal, Tom Christian, sums it up this way: "I get off what I consider a great tee shot, but this guy (Dixon) is 60 yards ahead of me."

CARELESS PUTTER

Dixon admits he's a bit weak on the greens, "I guess I get a little careless with the putter," he frowned. "I practice a lot, even on the carpet in my living room. I place a dime across the room and try to hit it. If you can hit a dime, that cup on the green looks like a bath tub."

This could be Dixon's big year in a series of big years. Just a few months ago he fired a competitive round of 65—six under par (six birds, no bogeys) —during the Alameda Commuters Tournament, trying the course records.

Some of his other great rounds were a 64 at San Mateo and a 67 on the par 71 Meadow Club layout. Tom won the San Mateo County title in 1955, was runner-up in '56 and regained it in '57. A member of Harding Park, he won that club title in 1956 and '59.

He has played in the San Anselmo Businessmen's Tournament just two times and won low gross both times.

TWO HANDICAPPER

Right now the pride of United packs a two handicap, but he's never entertained the thought of turning professional. He explains: "I've got too good a job right here, I have too many responsibilities, and besides, I haven't got the kind of dough it takes to play the pro circuit."

Dixon, a native San Franciscan and graduate (Class of '46) of Polytechnic High School, commutes to work daily, but plans someday to move to Marin.

His golfing pals here are pulling for him to become the next National Public Links Champion.

Legion Team Tops S.R. Pony League

Standings of the San Rafael Pony League's senior division today showed the undefeated American Legion team on top of the heap with four victories.

Northbridgers are all alone in second place with a 3-1 record, followed by Ed Burgar Builders and United Market each 2-2, Casa Marin 1-3 and Brown-Ely 0-4.

Bettor Dies As Longshot Wins

OCEANPORT, N. J. (UPI) — Business was slow yesterday, so Harry P. Natkeel, a 63-year old stamp and coin dealer, decided to take the day off and go to the races.

After arriving at the Monmouth Park track, he looked over the entries and put $2 on Chinchilla, a 47-1 long shot. Chinchilla came in first in an exciting race, making Natkeel's $2 ticket worth $97.20.

Nearby fans started to ask Natkell why he picked the long shot when he slumped to the floor and died of an apparent heart attack.

Braves Have New Name For Dodger Ace Drysdale! Chesty Red-Neck!

HANLEY

MILWAUKEE—Hank Aaron and the Braves have tacked a new monicker on the Dodgers' Don Drysdale, self-acclaimed meanest pitcher in baseball.

"Chesty Red-neck" is the new handle. There is no doubt handsome Don left Milwaukee red-necked the other night after the Braves handed him his ninth loss of the season.

Lou Chapman, baseball writer of the Milwaukee Sentinel, said the strong sidearming Dodger performed like an enraged bull after Hank Aaron belted one of Drysdale's fast balls into the left field bleachers.

"The next time Hank stepped up—in the third—Drysdale knocked him down on the first pitch, made him skip rope on another and repeated the stunt with a 3 and 1 count," Chapman recalled.

"He began to paw the ground on the mound with an El Toro ferocity. He threw a total of nine times to first, Aaron hitting the dirt head first a couple of times scrambling back safely.

"ON HIS third trip to the plate, Aaron dispensed with the formality of sweating out the inevitable duster. He cut viciously at the first pitch and put it in the general direction of his first homer.

"Hank waited impatiently in the on-deck circle after Drysdale loaded the bases in the seventh. But this time, Walt Alston decided his red-necked ace had had it and called for a bullpen reinforcement."

AARON, EMERGING from his early season batting slump, chuckled when he recalled the incident.

"I wanted another shot at him with the bases loaded," the Brave right fielder said. "When he gets mad he doesn't beat anybody."

There was speculation during the spring that Drysdale might even win 25 this year if he controlled his temper. With his present record 4-9 and feeling the way he does, he undoubtedly would find it difficult to make 25 with a pencil—even 20.

DICK HACKENBERG, sports editor of the Chicago Sun-Times, says Wilbur Clark told him there was heavy betting on the Patterson-Johansson fight and "a guy has to be crazy to bet more than a thousand on a fight."

Before the fight Hackenberg bumped into the dapper gambler from Las Vegas in New York and Clark told him:

"You can't slow 'em down on this one. I saw one fellow lay $15,000 against $10,000. Now before he flew in from Vegas I know he layed somebody else $28,00 against $17,500. You gotta be insane to do that."

Clark said the Patterson-Johansson fight "was the best gambling one in a long time—maybe the boys felt they had to keep up their reputations."

PIRATES ROLL ALONG

Law-Friend Combo Best In 20 Years

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Bob Friend and Vern Law are giving the Pittsburgh Pirates the National League's best 1-2 pitching combination since Bucky Walters and Paul Derringer almost single-handedly hurled the Cincinnati Reds to the flag in 1939.

The league has seen such brilliant duos as Mort Cooper and Johnny Beazley, Sall Maglie and Larry Jansen, and Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette in the last 20 years. But Friend and Law look like they'll surpass the exploits of 'em all. You have to go all the way back to that '39 season when Walters won 27 games and Derringer won 25 to find a pair with a pace to match the Pirate stars.

PENNANT PACE

In fact, with 20 victories between them in 60 games, Friend and Law are traveling at exactly the pace that would give them 52 wins—the same number totaled by Walters and Derringer.

It was Friend's turn last night and the comeback righthander fired an eight-hitter that gave the Pirates a 5-0 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals. This was Friend's fourth shutout and lifted his record to 9-3. Law, who won Tuesday night, stands 11-2, so the two have a combined 20-5 mark.

The victory enabled the Pirates to maintain their 3½-game first-place lead over the Milwaukee Braves, who whipped the San Francisco Giants, 7-4. The Philadelphia Phillies closed out a suspended Tuesday night game with a 7-6 win and then beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-3, in their regularly-scheduled game in other National League action.

The New York Yankees increased their American League lead to 1½ games when they beat the Detroit Tigers, 7-3, for their sixth straight win. The Chicago White Sox downed the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1; the Cleveland Indians edged the Washington Senators, 1-0, and the Kansas City Athletics beat the Boston Red Sox, 2-1.

Dick Groat had four hits and Roberto Clemente doubled home two key runs to lead the Pirates' 11-hit attack that tagged Larry Jackson with his seventh loss. The Pirates have won six of their last seven games and have a seven-game winning streak at home.

Robin Roberts completed the final innings of the suspended game for the Phillies and then Chris Short pitched and eight-hitter for his fourth victory. Tony Curry and Tony Gonzales hit homer for the Phillies, whose four-game winning streak is their longest since last July.

Kent Hadley, filling in for injured Bill Skowron, drove in three runs with two homers as the Yankees made it 13 wins in 14 games and 16 in 19. Art Ditmar won his sixth straight game, although Ryne Duren relieved in the ninth. Roger Maris also homered for New York and Rocky Colavito and Al Kaline connected for Detroit.

Early Wynn pitched a two-hitter for his first win since May 20 and the 274th of his career. The White Sox scored all their runs off Bill Fischer in the third inning on doubles by Gene Freese and Minnie Minoso, a walk, Nelson Fox' single, a sacrifice and Luis Aparicio's sacrifice fly.

The matches were played at the Los Angeles Tennis Club.

Harness Assn. May Get Pic-Six Bets

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Western Harness Racing Assn. has asked permission to conduct a system of wagering similar to Caliente's 5-10.

It asked the California Horse Racing Board yesterday to license pic-six for the 33-day fall meeting opening Oct. 4 at Hollywood Park. It is an elongated daily double, the fan picking a horse in six races—third race through the eighth, for $2.

Payoffs at Caliente sometimes have run into five figures. Pic-six would be handled automatically with machinery.

HEADSHOT—Jay Fullmer (right) lands a short jab to the head of Dickie DiVeronica in first round of their 10-round nationally-televised bout last night at Utica (N.Y.) Memorial Auditorium. DiVeronica was the winner by a split decision.

Fullmer Yells Robbery After Defeat On TV

UTICA, N.Y., (UPI) — Young Dick DiVeronica, protege of former middleweight champion Carmen Basilio, extended his record to 20 victories in 21 bouts with a successful TV debut, but to disgruntled loser Jay Fullmer, it was a "home boy decision."

The 21-year-old DiVeronica won a split 10-round decision over Fullmer last night in the new four million dollar Utica Memorial Auditorium, not far from the winner's hometown of Canastota, N.Y.

DiVeronica, a slight underdog, did most of the leading in the nationally-televised match. Fullmer lay back and counterpunched. There were no knockdowns.

OFFICIAL SCORING

That, apparently, influenced the two judges who favored DiVeronica. Judge Jim Hooten of Syracuse scored the fight 6-3-1 and Judge Louis Goldstein of Buffalo had it 5-4-1. Referee Joe Palmer of Syracuse favored Fullmer, 5-4-1.

DiVeronica weighed 135½; Fullmer, younger brother of the current middleweight king, Gene Fullmer, scaled 136¼.

In a semifinal bout, Joey Basilio, Carmen's 21-year-old brother knocked out Hector Garrido of Puerto Rico in the fifth round.

Both the elder Basilio and the elder Fullmer were in the Rocky Mountain area, training for their middleweight title fight at Salt Lake City next Wednesday night.

Shot Event Headlines Big Bakersfield Meet

BAKERSFIELD (UPI) — More than 600 of the country's finest track and field athletes attempt to gain Olympic Trials qualifications starting tomorrow in a two-day test of the National A.A.U. championships.

The meet, to be run at night to avoid the blistering heat that saturates this oil and cotton-rich area, will qualify six men in each event into the Olympic tests at Sanford July 1-2.

And for the first time this year every one of the world's top shot-makers will be competing. These will include Olympic Champion Parry O'Brien, Bill Nieder, Dave Davis and Dallas Long. Long, as winner of the recent NCAA championships, already is eligible for the Olympic trials.

All four men consistently have been well over the 60-foot mark this year—but for one reason or another, they never have all been in the same meet.

The shot-put finals, along with the finals in the hammer, high jump, broad jump, javelin, 100-meter dash, 110-meter hurdles, 400-meter hurdles and 10,000-meter run all will be held tomorrow night.

The finals in all other events will be staged Saturday night.

The 100-yard dash will give Dave Sime, the man with the broken heart from the 1956 trials, a chance to finally make the team. Sime was the top sprinter in the world that year. But he pulled a muscle trying to run a turn during the 200-meter dash trials in the NCAA—and never did get a crack at the Melbourne Olympics.

The 100-meter field, incidentally, will be a crackerjack. Headlining the cast will be Ray Norton, the current "fastes human" in the United States. Norton has been sidelined with leg injuries, but claims to be okay for tomorrow night's affair. In a "warm-up" meet at Albuquerque last week, Norton was clocked in 9.5 and 21 seconds flat for the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Deep Sea Rockfishing Excursions Offer Exciting, Mysterious Sport

STEVENS

Howdy, folks. Ray Gardner of Gardner's Deep Sea Fishing at Princeton on Half Moon Bay sent word that last week has been the best week for ling cod catches so far this year. Some 263 of the highly desired lings were unloaded. Pappy Wilkes caught the largest, a 36-pounder. R. B. Mitchell, of Vallejo, hauled in seven lings to 27 pounds. Limits of red rockfish and Boccacio were the rule in the deep water spots.

Some time gather the clan together and take in one of those deep sea rockfishing trips. It's an adventure, tinged with mystery. You never know, when you feel a slight nudge on your baits (perhaps 150 feet beneath the surface) what you will bring to the surface. It could be any one of some 30 different species of rockfish. Nothing unusual to get two at a time when conditions are right. It's a good way to forget your mundane troubles and inhale some of nature's greatest tonic, fresh salty air and sunshine.

No reason to get seasick these days of Dramakine and other Navy-discovered preventatives. No danger even in the foggiest weather. Boats are now equipped with ship-to-shore radio, automatic pilots — even depth recorders and fish finders.

WORD FROM Malio Stagnaro of Stagnaro's Fishing trips at Santa Cruz reported fair to good rockfish and ling cod catches, but salmon fishing "Very, very slow."

By the way, the long distance New Year Island trips featured out of Stagnaro's are now being operated on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

WE JUST received word from Fred De Lano, who is covering the National Field Archery tournament in Grayling, Mich., that California's bowmen and bowwomen will be up against some stiff competition from the entrants from Michigan. Records show that the Californians have won a total of 20 individual titles during the 14 previous tourneys and the Michiganders 19. We wonder if any Marin County bowmen are competing in the Grayling event which gets under way next Monday.

FRED HOUSTON, who operates the Mill Valley Sport Shop for the funds to go fishing on his off days, informed us he had just returned from a trip to the Gold Lake-Sardines Lakes area and found good action. Witnessed a mess of brown trout taken on fresh shrimp bait.

AL URBAIS of the Sausalito Boat and Tackle Shop reported all 15 of the party boats berthing at his harbor are doing a land office business with salmon outside the Gate. Walt Hunt of the Berkeley Harbor Bait shop in Berkeley, reported three different boats, trolling outside for salmon, came in with two and three beautiful striped bass caught right along with the salmon.

TROLLING in the Racoon Strait has been red hot the last few days. Three party boats, the Troller, R.S.P., and the Johnson No. 5 came in before noon on Tuesday with limits all around; unloaded fish and fishermen and took another party out to catch the late tide.

So, prospects look rosy, eh, what? Better quit waiting and get on the job!

Tiger Loses His Title To Greaves

EDMONTON, Alta., (AP)—Wilf Greaves of Edmonton last night stripped Nigeria's Dick Tiger of the British Empire middleweight boxing crown in a weird 15-round bout that was at first called draw.

Shortly after it was announced at ringside that Tiger had retained his championship, the Edmonton Boxing Commission went into an emergency session and awarded Greaves the decision.

The scorecards apparently had been added incorrectly.

In the scoring announced at ringside, Judge Dr. Louis Schwartz voted 9-6 for Tiger. Judge Dr. Les Willocks had Greaves in front 7-5-3. The deciding vote was cast by Referee John Smith, who saw it 5-5-5. The point totals were evenly split 69-69.

The crowd of more than 3,500 all but stormed the ring when the draw was announced. The reversal came long after the arena was empty.

The recount showed the two judges' cards cancelled each other out and the referee's card gave six rounds to Greaves, five to Tiger and four even.

The fighters went the distance without letting up, except during the last round when Greaves apparently thought he had the bout in the bag and concentrated on just hanging on until the final bell.

Braves Get Dark Bench Insurance

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The second-place Milwaukee Braves, seeking bench insurance for the pennant run, have obtained veteran Alvin Dark from the Philadelphia Phillies in a waiver deal.

The Phillies asked waivers on the 37-year-old infielder yesterday and the Braves were the only club to claim him. The price was not disclosed.

Dark said he appreciated being sent to the Braves and thinks they can win the National League pennant. He told newsmen he was sorry he didn't do more for the Phillies, for whom he hit .242 and batted in 14 runs in 55 games.

Hennessey Winner In Pro Bowling

LAS VEGAS (AP)—Tom Hennessey outbowled his arch-rival of the St. Louis, Mo., lanes early today to win the $21,000 National Professional Invitational Bowling Tournament.

Hennessey finished a fraction of a point ahead of Harry Smith, also of St. Louis, as the three-day tourney ended at Showboat Lanes. Hennessey, two times ABC Masters champion, and Smith, National All-Star Match Game champion, bowl on rival teams.

Gunderson, Eller Gain Semis In NCAA Golf Play

STNFORD (AP)—Blonde blue-eyed Jo Anne Gunderson, the par-cracking Curtis Cup star representing Arizona State University, established herself today as the main threat to defending champion Judy Eller in the Women's NCAA Golf Tournament.

Both girls advanced to the semi-finals on convincing wins yesterday. Miss Gunderson was matched today against Barbara Faye White, Centenary; Miss Eller against Jean Ashley, Kansas U.

Long-hitting, husky Jo Anne, 20, whose home town is Kirkland, Wash., took medalist honors over the long, exacting Stanford course Monday with a six under par 71 and was two under for the 13 holes it took her to eliminate Judy Kimball, Kansas U., yesterday. The score was 6-5.

Miss Eller, also a Curtis Cup player, advanced with a 2-1 win over Julie Hull, Purdue University. Miss Eller shot 77 for the round, even par for women.

The 18 hole finals are tomorrow.

U.S., JAPAN PUT PACT IN FORCE; REDS FOILED

Premier Kishi Says He Will Quit When Party Decides On Successor

TOKYO (AP) — The United States and Japan put their new mutual security treaty into force today at a secretly arranged ceremony, foiling plans of Japanese left-wingers to delay final action on the controversial pact.

Premier Nobusuke Kishi, for weeks the target of fanatical demonstrations by radical students, Socialists, Communists and labor forces, said he would resign now that the treaty had become law.

Kishi set no date for the resignation, but a spokesman said the cabinet would quit en masse as soon as Kishi's Liberal Democratfc party decides on his successor. Since the party has a majority in both houses of Parliament, approval of its choice is a certainty.

U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II and Foreign Minister Aiichiro Fujiyama met at Fujiyama's heavily guarded residence and exchanged documents covering their governments' ratification of the treaty.

The exchange immediately made the pact effective, continuing the U.S.-Japansese military alliance, giving the United States military bases in Japan at least for the next 10 years and pledging the United States to defend Japan against attack.

Japan's left wing had been staging huge and sometimes violent demonstrations for a month against the treaty, contending it might involve Japan in a war between the United States and the Soviet Union or Communist China. Some members of Kishi's party also felt their country should not be aligned with either side in the cold war.

Although the leftist demonstrations forced Kishi to call off President Eisenhower's visit to Japan, the Premier stubbornly refused to dissolve Parliament and make the treaty the issue in a general election.

In a last-ditch effort, the leftists had threatened to blockade the U.S. Embassy and the foreign ministry to keep MacArthur and Fujiyama from meeting for the ratification exchange. This is how they were thwarted:

President Eisenhower and U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter signed the formal instruments of U.S. ratification before the President left on his Far Eastern trip but left the dates blank. The documents were flown to Japan.

As soon at the White House phoned Eisenhower in Hawaii Wednesday that the U.S. Senate had ratified the treaty, the President messaged Ambassador MacArthur to insert the dates on the documents.

Arrangements were quickly made for the ambassador and the foreign minister to meet at Fujiyama's home, and not at the foreign ministry as the left-wingers expected. Newsmen were told of the plans less than an hour before the ceremony.

Three police patrol cars and 13 truckloads of police guarded the residence. But there was no sign of leftist demonstrators.

Later 300 weary, dispirited leftist students squatted in front of the foreign ministry. Another 1,500 held memorial rites in downtown Hibiya Park for Michiko Kamba, 22, a girl student who was killed in a student riot at Parliament June 15.

FRATERNAL TWINS

Kidney Transplant Operation Successful

BOSTON (UPI)—A major medical advance — the successful transplant of a kidney between other than identical twins—was announced today by Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

The history-making operation was disclosed through a paper published in the New England Journal of Medicine. Drs. John Merrill, Joseph E. Murray, J. Hartwell Harrison, Eli A. Friendman, James B. Dealy and Gustave J. Dammin told of the transplant.

The operation was performed Jan. 24, 1959, when Andrew Riteris of Milwaukee donated a healthy kidney to his fraternal twin brother, John. Kidney transplant operations were pioneered at the hospital more than five years ago but always had involved identical twins.

Persons other than identical twins have been unable to undergo the operation successfully in the past since the receiving patient's system rejected the donor's kidney.

The physicians said John Riteris returned to Milwaukee several months after the lifesaving operation but had to return last fall when tests disclosed his body was beginning to reject the kidney he had received from Andrew. He was given X-ray treatments and has been completely healthy since, the article said.

Merrill, chief of the hospital's research laboratory, was cautious about terming the operation a medical breakthrough.

Mom's Plea Ends Charge Of Slaying

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A mother's faith in retribution rather than the law today resulted in freedom for Douglas Beane, 25.

Beane fired at a gopher in his back yard last Feb. 25 and the ricocheting bullet struck 4-year-old Donna Sword as she watched television in her home next door. She died two days later and Beane was held on suspicion of manslaughter.

Superior Court Judge Evelle J. Younger dismissed the charges yesterday after reading a letter from the child's mother, Mrs. Frank Sword:

"I do not believe any good purpose could be served by insisting that this case be tried," the letter said in part—"Douglas will punish himself 1,000 times more than any law could do."

DESPITE HAZARDS

Ike Thinks Goodwill Tours Here To Stay

By JOHN SCALI

HONOLULU (AP) — President Eisenhower believes his successor in the White House will find summit diplomacy and goodwill travels inevitable despite the hazards.

Eisenhower's views were reported today as the president went golfing for the fourth time in four days, relaxing from the rigors of his controversial Far Eastern trip.

(In Washington, earlier this week Secretary of State Christian A. Herter said President Eisenhower would no longer conduct a campaign of personal diplomacy.)

He teed off in the bright Hawaiian sunshine on a closely guarded course, nestling on the edge of the Pacific, on the other side of the mountain from famed Waikiki Beach.

Eisenhower shunned all outside appointments while resting. In the afternoon, he arranged to work a bit more on the report he has promised the nation of his flying visits to Korea, Formosa, the Philippines and Okinawa.

This major television-radio speech will bear down heavily on the successes Eisenhower believes he achieved in his widely acclaimed stopovers in these four areas.

But he also will deal at some length with the now much-publicized blowup of his planned stop-over in Tokyo in the face of leftist-led riots.

Eisenhower has scheduled his speech for some time next week after he flies back to the White House this weekend.

In Eisenhower's view, the gain registered in the capitals he was able to visit came because presidential tours provide an unequaled opportunity to demonstrate dramatically U.S. interest in individual countries.

The next president, Democrat or Republican, may have set off on such travels just as much as he has despite the pitfalls, he believes.

One important reason dictating this, Eisenhower feels, is that they undoubtedly will be necessary to offset the personal appearance tours of the Soviet Union's fast-moving Nikita Khrushchev who shows no signs of slowing down his travels.

It is also because Khrushchev and his apparent determination to negotiate personally at the top that Eisenhower refused to believe that summit conferences are dead.

Sen. Mansfield Rips Handling Of Spy Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) charged today that facts indicate the control and timing of U-2 spy plane flights were left "in the hands of various obscure employees of the bureaucracy."

"Who runs this administration in the vital matters of foreign policy and defense?" Mansfield asked in a prepared Senate speech.

"It is not a new question. The shocking disarray of departments, agencies and subagencies through which this nation tries to conduct the foreign relations and defense of the nation, at best, borders on a national disgrace, and at worst, courts national disaster," he added.

The assistant Senate Democratic leader focused on the handling of the U-2 spy plane incident in a lengthy attack on the Eisenhower administration's foreign policies. He asked for a sweeping overhaul of defense and foreign policy machinery.

Mansfield is a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which conducted hearings into U-2 flights and the events that followed.

Greenbrae Troop Of Brownies Hold Campout

Organized in 1954 as a second grade Brownie Scout troop, eighth grade Troop 143 has been fortunate to have had only two leaders, Mrs. John O'Grattan was troop leader until she moved to Southern California in 1957, when Mrs. Clarence Lesko became leader. Mrs. Lesko has continued with the Intermediate Scouts, with Mrs. William O'Dell as assistant leader.

Five members of the troop, Leanne Bertram, Susie Henderson, Pat Lesko, Nancy O'Dell and Barbara Scatena have achieved the Curved Bar Rank in the Out-of-Doors field. They received this high award at the recent Scouts-in-Action Day at Redwood High School.

The final pioneer campout requirement was met when the girls camped at Tilden Park, East Bay Regional Park. The ranger, Jack Parker, gave the troop a completely primitive site, and the girls, much to their dismay, found a swarm of bees over their sleeping area. After its removal by the park authorities, the girls set up their primitive camp, including a table lashed to a tree, fireplace, caches for food and a latrine. Cooking techniques used included baking, roasting, broiling and stewing.

In addition to their out-of-door training, the girls are good swimmers, and presented an aquacade of eight numbers for their parents. They also spent a weekend skiing this winter at Eidelweiss Ski Resort, after earning the money for the trip.

These recent graduates are interested in the Mariner branch of Senior Scouting and plan to serve as Junior Pink Ladies at Marin General Hospital.

'Prelude To Vacation' Will Be Theme For Saturday Cotillion

A memorable year will be completed Saturday evening when the Marin Cotillion presents its final dance of the season at the Meadow Club. Chairmen for the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandahl, have chosen "Prelude to Vacation" as their theme, and, in keeping with this idea, the ballroom will be decorated in a lighthearted manner with all the requisites for a happy holiday.

Assisting the Sandahls will be their committee, Messrs. and Mesdames Willard Hall, Arthur Sauter, Jack Banner, and Ed Cowles.

The officers for the 1960-1961 season were selected by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors at its recent meeting and will be presented to the assembled members and their guests by retiring president Henry Hewelchke.

The newly elected president is Harold Geister, and Mrs. Carl Sandahl has been elected to assist him as secretary-treasurer. The Board of Directors for the coming season's Cotillion will be composed of Messrs. and Mesdames Jack Banner, William Belfor, Gerald Frellson and Arthur Sauter. They are expecting the James Thorntons, Sam Levins, Robert Brooks, Lou Aquilinos, John Wollaks, Ed Cowles, Carl Sandahls, Odie Richards, Al Bryants, Harry Underwoods, Al Essers, Jack Banners, Tony Riccis, Miss Carol Esser and Kenneth Navas.

In their Loch Lomond home, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clancy will be host to Messrs. and Mesdames John Saia, Chris Arata, Bert Chiaroni, Robert Clark, Arthur Sauter, Robert Henderson, Carl Zimmerman, John Lewis, Willard Hall, Linn Roberts, and Albin Dittli.

Another Loch Lomond home will be the gathering place for members and guests as Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tait entertain Messrs and Mesdames John Carbone, John Pleich, Al Liotta, Percy Smith, Jay Force, Robert M. Clark, and Al Filipelli.

MEMBERS OF San Rafael High School YMCA groups are constructing a garden exhibit at the Marin Art and Garden Fair this year. Sherry Strombeck Trades Vows With D. P. O'Kelley Of Oakland Baskets of white and pink gladioli and white stock and statice banked the altar of the Novato Presbyterian Church Saturday when Sherry Strombeck exchanged vows with Donald P. O'Kelley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Strombeck of Novato. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Roger Ivie of Oakland and Richard O'Kelley of Oakland.

Rev. Howard Swartz officiated for the 4 o'clock double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of imported nylon organdy fashioned with a fitted bodice, drop waistline and square scalloped neckline. Her skirt was of ruffled embroidered organdy tiers. Her shoulder length veil of nylon net was held by a tiara of rhinestones and pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Preceding the bride to the altar, Gwendolyn Erickson of Richmond, as maid of honor, and bridesmaids, Terry Brownlee and Linda Dimmick of Novato, wore lavender silk chiffon sheaths designed with satin lavender cummerbunds. They had miniature lavender bandeau veil headdresses and wore matching shoes. Pink roses with white carnations formed their bouquets.

Little Susie Dimmick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Dimmick of Novato, as flower girl, was gowned in a lavender dress like the honor attendants and carried a white basket of pink, white and lavender sweetpeas.

Robert Libbey of Oakland was best man and ushers included Gerald Hampton and Joe Pepin of Hamilton Air Force Base.

Mrs. Strombeck chose a green silk shantung sheath with matching jacket and beige accessories for her daughter's wedding. She had an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a yellow and white nylon print frock with matching jacket and white accessories. Her flowers were orchids.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony at the Silver Hills Country Club in Novato. White stock was used in arrangements.

For a wedding trip to Los Angeles and Palm Springs, the bride wore a grey and white sheath with white hat and black patent leather shoes and purse. She had a carnation and rosebud corsage.

The bride was graduated from San Rafael High School where she was a member of Les Couturieres. She is employed with Stoner and Youngberg in San Francisco. Bruce Strombeck of Novato is her brother.

The bridegroom was graduated from Oakland High School and is now with the U. S. Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base. Mrs. Paul Schmidt of Berkeley, and Paul Schmidt of Paradise are his grandparents.

The newlyweds will reside in Novato.

Former Resident Wed In Texas Ceremony

Of interest to friends in Marin is news of the double ring service in the First Unitarian Church of Houston, Tex. on June 6 when Suewiya Mae Gillette and James Mace Pickett exchanged wedding vows in the presence of their immediate families.

Reverend H. F. Westwood officiated at the ceremony held before the candle and chrysanthemum decorated altar. The church organ provided appropriate background music.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white lace and chiffon over taffeta. The scalloped neckline blended with her pearl tiara that held a short veil. She carried a showered bouquet of white carnation and Vanda orchids.

Assisting as ring bearer was Adeena Gillette, sister of the bride, who wore a ballerina length dress of blue taffeta and a head-band of white carnations.

The bridegroom's family, including Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pickett and sons Lewell and Marvin, attended the wedding coming from their home in Bastrop, La. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Gillette and daughter Adeena traveled from their home in Salt Lake City, Utah. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Grace Wendt of Salt Lake City, was also present.

After the service the bride's parents hosted a luncheon for the wedding party. The table was attractively decorated with white bells and blossoms which echoed the two-tiered cake topped with white wedding bells.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Pickett were graduated from Rice Institute on June 3 and will make their home in Austin, Texas where they will do graduate work in the Zoology Department of the University of Texas.

How To Tell If The Baby Is Sick

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.

A young mother with her first baby often worries that her baby is sick. She doesn't know what a sick baby looks like so she fears that each little sneeze or cough means her baby is sick. After she has had several children, she learns the signs of sickness. But in those early months she may be needlessly worried.

A mother needs to know what signs are serious and call for the doctor's immediate attention and what signs are not so serious and can safely be treated at home and then the doctor called if necessary.

A baby changes rapidly as he grows and develops but certain kinds of changes may mean that he is sick.

The sudden changes are of two kinds. First, those acute things that anyone can recognize as signs of illness, a convulsion, a hemorrhage, a high fever. Second, those vague changes which are first apparent to the mother who knows her baby better than anyone else. Has the baby been more irritable than usual, has he eaten as usual, or has he been more restless in his sleep?

Some signs of illness may be the beginning of serious disease and should have the immediate attention of the doctor. The following are serious signs:

A sudden very high fever, especially if the baby seems tense, jittery and jumpy He may be on the verge of convulsions. A phone call to your doctor may give you advice to avoid a convulsion.

Difficulty in breathing.

Hoarseness which developed suddenly, especially if there is also a hard barky cough.

A blue or gray color to the lips and face, especially if the child seems listless.

Blood in the stool (not just a drop but a large amount).

If your baby shows any of these signs; put him to bed in a quiet place and phone your doctor as soon as possible regardless of the hour. Your doctor will tell you what to do immediately and make arrangements to see your child.

San Rafael High Graduates Honored

Eighteen scholarships and other honors were awarded members of the San Rafael High School class of 1960 at graduation exercises last Thursday.

Scholarship winners were:

Marilyn Seccio, Ra Ravas Vocational Scholarship; Lynn Bowers, Delta Delta Delta Alumni Scholarship; Lenor Brawley, San Rafael High School Theatre Arts Scholarship; Robert DeGraff, San Rafael Rotary Club Scholarship; Orville Grimes, Oliver Hartzell Memorial Scholarship, and Betty Hastings, Occidental College Alumni Scholarship and National Presbyterian College Scholarship.

The winners: Robert Cole, Mia Dale, Orville Grimes, Joanne Jensen, Marilee Michael and Peter Stokely.

A citation for the highest scholarship in the class went to Orville Grimes. The grade averages of two other students, Mia Dale and Joanne Jensen, were so close to the highest that they also were recognized.

Twenty-two students received certificates of proficiency. These are recommendations from teachers for employment of students, based on the high quality of work done in classes. Those given in music are recommendations for advanced training.

The winners:

Marilyn Beccio, home economics; Peggy Ann Cooper, business subjects; Judith Currey, instrumental music; Robert DeGraff, instrumental music; Darrel Dietrich, industrial arts; Gloriann Grande, vocal music; Mary Kay Humphries, home economics, and Cheryl Lynn, instrumental music.

Citations for meritorious services to the school and their fellow students went to Gilbert Peterson, Josephine Russo and Georgette Steiger, library service, and Paul Sheehan and Richard Truesdell, stagecraft.

Fifteen students were cited as life members in the California Scholarship Federation. They are Lynn Bowers, Mia Dale, Orville Grimes, Betty Hastings, Gretchen Glazier, Joanne Jensen, Cheryll Lynn, Louise McFarlane, Marilee Michael, Charles Morehouse, James Purvis, Beverly Schwartz, Peter Stokely, Philip Strauss and Frederick Yeager.

Miss Dale, Miss Hastings, Miss Jensen, Miss Michael, Grimes and Stokely went beyond the requirements for life membership and qualfied for certificates of 100 per cent membership.

Bicycling Boy Hurt In Crash

An 11-year-old Novato boy suffered a broken collar bone and multiple abrasions when his bicycle collided with a car at 10 a.m. Tuesday. He was dragged nine feet.

The child, James Letsos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Letsos of 1591 Hill Road, Novato, was reported in good condition yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital.

He was struck by the car of Mrs. Wilma Dora Dustman of 50 Shields Lane, secretary at Hill School, Novato, as she turned right from Diablo Avenue onto South Novato Boulevard, and the boy on his bike came off a pedestrian bridge into her path, said California Highway Patrol Officer Keith Craig. Mrs. Dustman was not cited.

Governor's Penthouse Would Be Cheaper, State Aide Says

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A penthouse for the governor?

Public Works Director Robert B. Bradford seriously suggests it as a replacement for the 82-year-old Victorian mansion now occupeid by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Bradford says the penthouse could be put atop a proposed new state office building across from Capitol Park. There is controversy about whether the building will be 8 or 13 stories tall.

The "White House" concept of the governor's mansion is outdated, Bradford told the Capital Building and Planning Commission.

A penthouse would provide the governor's family privacy and ready access to the Capitol, he noted. In addition it would save $150,000 for the site.

The new state budget includes that amount for acquisition of a mansion site, a thorny problem for some years. The state once bought one, but former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight vetoed the location.

Forts To Get Septic Tank Installation

Installation of septic tanks at Forts Barry and Cronkhite is scheduled to begin next month, the Army Corps of Engineers announced today.

Col. John S. Harnett, district engineer said bids will be opened July 7. The job will cost "between $50,000 and $100,000," he said.

Sewage is now discharged into the ocean from both forts. The septic tanks will comply with all pollution control regulations and there will be no danger to swimmers, Colonel Harnett said.

Existing sewage lines, he said, will be diverted so that all sewage will pass through the new tanks. In addition, a large leeching field will be constructed.

Bids will be opened at 2 p.m. in Room 300 at the Corps of Engineers office at 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco. Contractors will start work two days after receiving the contract and must complete the work within 180 days, Colonel Harnett said.

Tree farms in the Pacific Northwest contain more than 100 species of trees, 23 of which are of major commercial importance.

One Last Try To Block Marin's Civic Center Fails

Outspoken opponents of the county's new civic center made one final try to block its construction—they didn't get the support of even one supervisor.

The attempt was made by Joseph W. Morrison of Mill Valley who said he represented a group which is studying the possibility of filing a law suit to block further construction. He charged the county's pay-as-you-go system is illegal.

A special hearing of the supervisors yesterday morning discussed abandonment of the project.

When the vote was taken, supervisors were unanimous in instructing their contractor to go ahead with construction of the $3,845,335 first building on the Santa Venetia site. Even William Fusselman, who has consistently opposed anything to do with the civic center, voted in favor of the motion this time. But Fusselman hedged his approval with a statement that he was doing it solely on the basis of the legality of the contract between the builder and the county.

This apparently marks the end of any major attempt to block construction of the Frank Lloyd Wright structure. Obvious time to file a suit or to bring major pressure on the supervisors was immediately after they had signed a contract, but before any funds had been spent.

They didn't do it. Next most obvious time would be now, shortly after an election in which two of the civic center supporters on the board were defeated at the polls and when the construction work is only at the ground-moving stage; practically no erection work is yet under way.

Six months from now, when the new board is seated, much of the concrete construction will be in place; it would then be extremely expensive to stop construction. Besides, Fusselman's vote yesterday might be an indication he too is having second thoughts on the new center.

There were a couple of encouraging things in yesterday's hearing. One was Morrison's insistence that "we're not trying to sack" the civic center, merely to build it less expensively. This may be an indication opponents are beginning to realize that the structure is badly needed by the county.

The other was the predominance of civic center supporters in the audience and the calm, considered way in which they spoke for the project. It was quite a change from some meetings we've attended when opponents bitterly condemned the board for its actions.

Now, let's get on full speed with the construction.

AT OUR THROAT

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

It's Not Always What You Say, Sometimes It's Way You Say It

A neat summary of the home life of a true cat-lover was given the other day by Dick Layman, in his spare time news editor of the I.-J. Dick put it this way:

"We have cats the way some people have mice."

All my life I've been a sucker for the pat phrase, the tabloid tickler. Often it's loaded with some truth.

Wife Agnes snorted when I told her that our Mill Valley winding lane called Hillside was officially styled an "avenue."

"Avenue nothing!" quoth she. "What we live on is a horse trail!"

AND SURE ENOUGH, proof finally came along: "Marin County is essentially a horse-keeping and horse-loving country," said petitioners to the Marin County Board of Supervisors, asking that automobiles be banned here.

That was about 50 years back and I believe the motion failed. (Today it might pass.) So far as Hillside is concerned, Agnes is right. All autos should be banned in favor of horses, who obviously should own Hillside.

All autos, that is, except for our beloved Porsche "Blue Buster," size of a Shetland pony and garaged in a hole in the hill like a horse stall.

OVER AT SAN RAFAEL office of the California Highway Patrol I ran into a pretty good phrase in an official citation.

One of the uniformed lads had charged a citizen with "failure to drive a car while wearing glasses."

This is one to think over. Imagine the forgetful citizen absentmindedly pulling his glasses out of his pocket, putting them on, then forgetting to get promptly into his car and drive! That is what the charge implied he had to do, on penalty of being cited.

What the gentleman of the law meant, of course, was that the driver was driving without wearing his glasses, and that he owned a driving license requiring him to wear glasses.

But it wouldn't take a very smart lawyer to get that charge dismissed. I wonder what happened. Even the sharpest newspapers don't report all the news all the time.

ONE REASON IS that we newsmen are lazy. For days, now, I have been cherishing a tip that "there are more than 1,000 guitar players in San Quentin" and I haven't done a thing about it.

Come to think, no real reason to do anything; justice is undoubtedly being done. A few piccolo players should join them.

Did you know what you're called on San Rafael's Auto Row if you like to look the cars over, then say you have to talk with your wife first?

Well, that make you a "be-back." You're a be-back because that is what you say you'll do. The salesman has doubts, hardened in the fire of experience.

This month is a good time to mention that a "June bug" is a teen-ager with that new car glint in his eye. Probably what he wants is a "roller skate," alias sports car. And he wants it loaded with "scorch."

SINCE MOST writers have to struggle not to over-say what they have on their minds, I am struck by people with gift for under-emphasis.

Sitting in a Fourth Street barbershop the other day when the best thing you could say for San Rafael that it wasn't as hot as Woodacre, I noted a calm, cool, collected chap strolling through the place wearing a straw hat and very little else.

"Getting a bit warm, ain't it?" called my barber.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Eliminate Inflation From Investments

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

You will find enclosed a newspaper clipping concerning bonds. This is in line with what I wrote you several weeks ago.

I think you should find it a pleasant duty to call the attention of your readers to this proposition in Congress and have the local law-makers put that guarantee in the local issues of bonds.

LEO W. JOHNSON
San Rafael

(NOTE: Reader Johnson enclosed the clipping of an Associated Press dispatch headed "Bill Would Link Bonds, Living Cost." The article reported introduction of a bill in Congress which would increase value of bonds as the cost of living increased, eliminating investment loss due to inflation.)

One-Way Streets Aid Traffic Flow

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Thank you for calling to our attention that the timing of the signals on Lincoln Avenue were not functioning properly. The signals have been re-set to favor southbound traffic. Due to the distance between center-line of cross streets, it is impossible to synchronize the signals in both directions, consequently, they have been synchronized to favor the direction of major traffic flow.

The following streets are synchronized for a speed of approximately 25 M.P.M. and in the following directions:

1. Irwin Street, from Third Street to Mission Avenue — northbound.
2. Second Street, from "E" Street to Lindaro Street — eastbound.
3. Lincoln Avenue, from Mission Avenue to Third Street—southbound.

The timing of above signals are periodically checked because there are many factors that will affect and vary the pre-determined synchronization. Assuming that the signals are properly timed, the following traffic movements will prevent the smooth flow of vehicles.

1. Left turns.
2. Vehicles moving in and out of parking spaces.
3. Slow moving vehicles.
4. Pedestrians who do not believe in signals.
5. Right turns when pedestrians are using the crosswalk.

This department realizes that present pattern of traffic control at the various intersections is not the best solution available, but a good compromise. The solution to the City's traffic problem is apparent, but there are many people who disagree, and this is their right. If a one-way street system was adopted, the signals could be permanently synchronized by connecting the various controllers to a master controller at a very nominal cost.

The intersection at Fifth and "H" Street is a complex intersection to signalize because the major traffic movement is westbound traffic making a left turn from Fifth Street to "H" Street. This movement has to be given preferential treatment. If the intersection was signalized for two movements only, the eastbound traffic from Sun Valley would never get across "H" Street. Due to the limited capacity of the intersection the cycle had to be increased to 80 seconds. The length of this cycle was determined by the number of left turns that had to be permitted by the westbound traffic on Fifth Avenue and minimum time for a pedestrian to cross the street for the other two movements. Special consideration was given to the school children that attend West End School. The length of this cycle is 20 seconds longer than normally used, but smooth operation of the intersection required this extra time.

Before the signals were installed at Fifth and "H" Streets, the traffic was stopped in all directions by arterial "Stop" signs. The traffic did flow through the intersection, but westbound traffic rarely permitted the side street traffic the use of the intersection. A pedestrian or vehicle using the side street had to take the initiative. If the drivers of westbound traffic had been courteous and cooperative, this signal would not have been necessary.

You may be assured this department is fully cognizant of the increasing traffic problems not only at this particular intersection but at many other locations in our city. We shall constantly strive to improve these "trouble spots" within the scope of our existing physical facilities (width of streets, lengths, locations, et cetera).

We welcome any constructive and informative advice or criticism. My office is always open to such comments.

Please contact us if there is any further information you may desire.

Department of Public Works
NORRIS M. RAWLES
Supervisor

San Rafael

(NOTE: Reader Rawles failed to mention one other factor which makes timing of the Lincoln Avenue lights difficult: The lights at Fourth and Fifth are not synchronized, they operate simultaneously, thus making proper timing impossible.)

Leaving Hospital After Bee Episode

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I wish to thank you for the recent publicity given my school about our Winter Olympics Albums project. Dick Steinheimer took a wonderful picture. I think it is the best I've ever seen in any newspaper (or am I prejudiced?).

The "three hour pass" article about my attending my class graduation exercises was very cleverly written and true in very detail. I'm happy to say I am leaving the hospital today (June 18). One lesson I've learned: "Never under estimate the power of a bee."

I have been a resident of Corte Madera since April 18, 1906, and the Independent-Journal s my favorite paper—would never be without it.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

WHERE'S THE FIRE?

Fire departments have to know where the fire is before they can put it out.

That fact was brought home to a 35-year-old man in a small New England town in a very graphic way.

Roused from sleep by the smell of smoke, he jumped from a second story window of his burning home and sprinted to the nearby volunteer fire station, a short distance away. He quickly yanked the whistle cord to summon the volunteers.

He was in such a hurry to get back to his burning house, however, that he neglected to wait and tell the first volunteer where the fire was. Nor did he leave any direction on how to reach his home which was hidden from sight.

By the time the bewildered firemen found the fire, the house had burned to the ground.

Little oversights can cause big trouble. Pay attention, therefore, to the small things which contribute to the peace of your home, community, country and world. In God's plan, no detail of life is unimportant.

"The impatient man shall work folly."
(Proverbs 14:17)

Keep us reminded, O Lord, that trifles can lead to perfection but that perfection is no trifle.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A business man read an erroneous announcement of his own death in the morning paper and called up his wife in a frenzy. "Did you read that story about me in the obit page?" he demanded. "I certaintly did," answered his wife. "Where are you calling from?"

"One of the great things about living in a democracy," boasts Bob Hope, "is that we have complete control over how we pay out taxes — cash, check, or money order."

Hope says that the girl ahead of him in the line at the tax office really set the internal revenue men back on their heels, however. "I'm a nurse," she told them. "Is it all right for me to take off my uniform and underwear?"

They tell about the starlet who flunked her driver's examination because she thought the white line in the middle of the highway was for bicycles!

The Southland experienced an unexpected and devastating blizzard early in 1960, during the course of which an associate of producer Garson Kanin phoned him in New York to report, "This snow has paralyzed traffic down here. I'm literally stranded in Alabama."

"Ah," nodded Kanin knowingly. "Immobile, eh?"

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

The Rockefeller Challenge Should At Least Get A Nixon Restatement

WASHINGTON—It is useful, I think, to examine the nature and size of the challenge which Gov. Nelson Rockefeller laid down to Vice President Richard Nixon.

From a careful reading of the 2,700-word document it seems to me:

That it is proper and fair to challenge Nixon to expound his views more fully before the nomination.

That, as the elected Republican governor of the largest state in the Union, home of so many presidential nominees, Rockefeller has the right to speak out and the right to be heard by his party.

That, since Rockefeller is also seeking to further his own undeclared candidacy, he has worded his statement in such a way as to imply that Nixon is an inveterate fence-sitter, which is untrue.

That, for this reason especially, it is appropriate that the time and method of Nixon's reply should be of his own deliberate choosing.

INDEED WHETHER he accepts the Rockefeller challenge at all is pretty much Nixon's free choice. There is no reason to believe that either his silence or his outspokenness will alter the decision of the Chicago convention. But it is my conviction that it would be better for the country, better for the Republican party, and better for Nixon if he did define his position more fully.

I fail to see any valid reason why Nixon should not speak his views frankly and fully during the next few weeks. There have been two deterrents.

AS VICE PRESIDENT, Nixon's duty has been to speak only for the President. But he is now more than Vice President. He is the leading candidate for the Republican presidential nomination and his transcendent duty is to speak for himself.

The other reason Nixon has not developed his views as fully as he might has been the lack of competition for the nomination. On this point Rockefeller has been more to blame than anyone else. If he had not withdrawn from the race, if he had earlier challenged the Vice President to expound his views in a contested primary, he would not have to be challenging Nixon.

ACTUALLY THE AREA of difference between Nixon and Rockefeller does not seem to me to be mammoth. On executive reorganization, controlled disarmament, economic growth, civil rights, and federal aid to education, I am aware of no great gulf between them. There are differences over the size of our defense effort, limited compulsory arbitration, over the inflationary effects of the steel settlement and medical aid for the aged.

These are sufficient differences for a healthy, constructive debate. If Nixon feels that he has fully expounded his views, then he should expound them over again so that they can be sharply visible in one piece and in one package.

Man's Fight Against Problems Of Middle-Age Is Old, Old One

NEW YORK (AP) — Are you middle-aged? Do you feel worthless?

This feeling is very common to many people in their autumn years.

Even middle-aged women sometiems feel a sense of uselessness, once their children are reared.

But a woman is usually too smart—and has too much basic self-respect — to let that feeling linger long. She cures herself by taking off her shoes which is a feminine remedy for almost any ill, by eating a steak dinner, by buying a new hat, or by picking a quarrel with her husband.

It is the middle-aged man who is more likely to get the feeling he is no good — and to brood over it.

He may be a pillar of the community. He may never have gone to jail in his life. He may be doing well on his job, paying his debts, and abstaining from striking his children or dog in public.

Yet he is dissatisfied with himself. He is swept by recurring moods of black melancholy. He feels, unreasonably to be sure, that he and his life add up to a mutual zero.

This man, obviously, is in need of what psychologists call "ego satisfaction." He needs to build a better opinion of himself, to regain a feeling of virtue and an appreciation of his own worth.

Here are a few suggestions:

Buy yourself an automatic backpatter. When you come home from work, feeling low, you simply stand in front of the machine. It pats you repeatedly on the shoulder with a firm hand while a tape-recorded voice booms in your ear, "you're the greatest."

Confess to your wife you feel like a bum. From then on the problem is hers—and she will fight it, too.

MOVE TO A HUT in the wilderness, and build a better mousetrap.

Lose yourself in a new and important cause. For example, why not start a league for higher taxes?

IF ALL ELSE fails, there is one final solution.

Grow old. Then, at least, you won't feel middle-aged.

Novato Service Pact Close To Agreement

The Marin County Board of Supervisors and a delegation of Novato city officials yesterday worked out a tentative agreement of approximately $22,300 in services to be rendered by the county to Novato.

The supervisors will consider a final draft of the agreement at their meeting next Tuesday and the Novato City Council will consider it Tuesday evening.

As the proposed agreement stood at the end of the session the county would provide sheriff's office patrol, engineering services, and street maintenance for three months beginning July 1.

Attorney Julius Selinger of San Rafael representing a group of Marin engineering firms asked that a decision on the county providing any engineering service be deferred until the group may make a proposal to Novato. The engineers are expected to attend Tuesday evening's council meeting.

The contract draft provides a full year, beginning July 1, of services to be rendered by the county planning department, food handling establishment inspection by the county health department, and street striping and sweeping by the public works department.

Maintenance of any vehicles or equipment acquired by Novato at the county garage was eliminated from the agreement. A 35 per cent overhead charge would eliminate any saving for Novato, said Robert O. Bailey, city clerk and administrative consultant.

Fair To Feature Arrow Shooting

Shooting techniques, arrow making and equipment will be featured at Marin's Northwoods Bowmen's Club booth at the Marin Art and Garden Fair in Ross, June 30-July 4.

Instructors will be on hand to answer questions and spectators may shoot at the booth.

Members of the club will show the steps in arrow making and show hunting and field archery pictures. Club president Lowell (Rip) Van Winkle, Novato, will aid in the demonstrations.

Low Moral Standards Reflected By Rise In Illegitimate Births

Twenty per cent of all the babies in our nation's capital are born out of wedlock. No one knows how many illegal operations occur. With them, the figure would be higher. One baby in five is illegitimate. Whew!

Many states make no special report on such births. But the rate is going up in all the states that do. They don't equal the District of Columbia's record, but several approach it. Counselors have been complaining about lowered moral standards. Now we see why.

Does this concern you personally? Yes. There's a trend among young people to accept intimacy as a normal part of social life. Formerly the girls who became pregnant were rebels. They were punishing their parents. Now many otherwise good girls are guilty. They aren't rebelling. They're just living according to their pagan standards.

Are you raising your children to believe in chastity before marriage? I hope so. They will be tempted. Unless you raise them properly, they may slip. Their world is very different from yours.

Don't be afraid to teach your boy or girl what is right and what is wrong. Start when they are tiny. Give them clear rules. Have them grow up with kids from homes which set high standards. Don't let them drink. Be sure their parties are properly chaperoned.

Try to have them take active parts in church youth affairs. If possible make your church the center of their social life. The country over, our church teen-agers are the best kids of all.

(A) Many countries keep no records. Of those that do, I believe Sweden has the highest rate. It is reported that 20 per cent of the births are illegitimate.

Bigger-Than-Life Statues Have It Good At Capitol, They Are Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—There are about 90 bigger-than-life-sized statues standing, sitting, striding, smiling, scowling and staring sternly in the Capitol. It seems safe to say no statues ever had it so good.

They are dusted every day. Every three months they get a bath in soap and water. Best of all, from the statue's point of view, they are noticed, and in several cases, honored.

The streams of visitors trooping through the corridors each day find it hard to avoid noticing statues — they are everywhere.

Back in 1864 the federal government invited all the states to send statues of two of their illustrious citizens for display in the old house chamber.

But the marble-and bronze representatives took up so much room the original chamber could not handle all of them. Some were placed wherever space was available.

History has scaled these heroes somewhat differently than the sculptors. In the old chamber, where 40 statues encircle the wall, the most impressive figure is that of Idaho's George Shoup, one of the state's first governors and senators. A head taller than most of his chiseled colleagues, he stands proudly erect, displaying a white marble paunch of truly monumental proportions.

Florida's John Gorrie, inventor of the ice machine, is equally at home, it can be imagined, between New York's Robert R. Livingston (1746-1813) and Frances E. Willard, founder of the Women's Christian Temperance union, as he would be between Arizona's Spanish-American war hero, Gen. John Campbell Greenway, and Uriah M. Rose, Arkansas lawyer.

But wherever possible, congenial groupings have been arranged. Jefferson Davis and Robert E. Lee stand side by side. Henry Clay and John C. Calhoun, fiery spirits of an earlier Senate, also are paired.

From time to time wreaths of flowers blossom at the base of the statues, commemorating a birthday or some other significant date. Jefferson Davis and Lee are almost never unadorned.

Sausalito Planners Postpone Meeting

Due to a technicality in a legal notice, the Sausalito Planning Commission has postponed its meeting scheduled for last night until July 13.

The commission was to have met to hear requests for variances and a use permit from Rob Rose, who wants to build a 14-unit apartment house at the foot of El Portal Street. Mrs. Ruth Sisson, secretary, said the hearing was not advertised properly.

Crop Losses Claimed

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Northern California's cannery strike entered its seventh day today as apricot growers claimed crop losses already topping the one-million-dollar mark.

The Council of California Growers, a farmers' public information group, disputed claims by Teamsters Union officials here that enough independent canneries were operating to absorb the 1960 crop for at least a week to 10 days.

A two-day survey in the Winters area by the growers' group indicated that more than half of the estimated 20,000 ton crop was lost because of the idled canneries. Early loss estimates were placed at $900,000.

Polish Plan

WARSAW, Poland, (AP) — Wladyslaw Gomulka's revised 1961-65 five-year plan, emphasizing investment in industry and agriculture at the expense of improvement in living standards, has won the expected approval of the Polish Communist party central committee.

The Polish press agency said the new schedule was adopted unanimously at the close of a two-day meeting presided over by Gomulka, first secretary of the Polish United Workers Communist party.

Chef Helps Spread U.N. Food Idea

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—A good chef who understands human psychology as well as food can sometimes render valuable "technical" assistance for the United Nations.

In the interior of Tunisia many people live largely on vegetables, dates, olives and bread. The very poor may eat an average of 20 olives and a half pound of bread a day, getting meat only a few times a year.

On the coast there is a flourishing fishing industry, but tradition has it that most of the fish caught is exported or eaten by the Tunisian coastal folk and very little finds its way into the country's interior.

Some time ago the Food and Agriculture Organization of the U.N. decided to try and "break the Tunisian food barrier," as one writer called it, by popularizing fish in the interior.

The problem was how to do it. People who never have eaten much fish before cannot be expected to take to it voluntarily. They need to be coaxed.

Dr. Rudolph Kreuzer of West Germany, in charge of the program, decided the best solution was to concoct a fish stew that could be canned and easily transported.

He made it out of sardines and sardinella, a form of sardine, boiled, salted, fermented, marinated and spiced. When it was done, he asked Tunisian helpers to sample and pass judgment on the stew. They told him it was terrible.

To find out what was the matter with his concoction, Kreuzer went to a local Tunisian restaurant and tasted some of its popular dishes. The experience nearly always "blew him off the chair," the report said, but it told him in one mouthful what his fish stew was missing. Pimento. The Tunisian like lots of it in their food.

So he added pimento galore and the stew was eventually a success.

"I realized that I had been trying to give the Arabs food cooked in European style, which would be like trying to teach the Eskimos to eat spaghetti," Kreuzer said.

Board Approves New Subdivision

Qualified approval was given the final map of Marin Capital Co.'s Scott Valley Unit 1 subdivision by the Marin County Board of Supervisors Tuesday.

Nine lots of a total of 81 are in county territory; the remainder, in Mill Valley.

Supervisor Vera L. Schultz finally worded a motion, which the board approved, approving the map "on condition that it shall not be received until the county counsel and the Department of Public Works have given the board their approval of the joint obligation construction completion bond to be posted by the subdivider to give water provision and all other improvements."

Planners Veto Zoning Request

The Larkspur Planning Commission Tuesday voted down a city council recommendation that the Garden Spot Nursery at 1144 Magnolia Avenue be rezoned from commerical to residential.

The proposed rezoning was urged last month by the council at the request of adjoining residents who feared that an objectionable type of business might replace the nursery in the event of sale of the property.

By rezoning the area to residential and allowing the nursery a use permit for continued operation, no other type of business could be established there.

The planners, however, are studying a new commercial zoning system for the city which would allow three types of commercial zoning and would, they feel, offer more control over uses of commercial land.

Reports Of Abuses Of Public To Be Heard By Group

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Assembly committee on Industrial Relations will meet in San Francisco July 7 and 8 to consider reports of abuses of the public by state workers, as well as misuse of prison personnel.

Assemblyman Tom Bane (D-Tujunga) said there had been reports inmates of state prisons were required to perform personal services for state employees and their families, causing hardships for small business firms near prisons.

Bane said the hearing also would consider reports of mistreatment of recipients of unemployment insurance by Department of Employment personnel.

Mill Valley Youth Enlists In Navy

Martin Lowell Smith, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell L. Smith of 278 Summit Avenue, Mill Valley, enlisted in the Navy Tuesday at the Marin County Navy Recruiting Office, 1116 Fourth Street, San Rafael, for a four-year tour of duty.

He was sent to the Navy Training Center at San Diego, for nine weeks of recruit training.

Works For Campers

FT. LEE, Va. (AP)—When the Army goes camping it is no picnic. But the things it carries are a joy to civilian campers. Among new devices being tested at the Quartermaster School here are a one-pound stove for quick cooking of dehydrated foods, a slim metal cylinder to heat a five-gallon can of water on the principle of a slowed-down incendiary bomb and a lantern with a doughnut-shaped fuel tank above the light so as to deflect light.

Barbecue Exhibit Planned In Ross

Girls and boys groups of the YMCA from Redwood High School are planning a barbecue exhibit aimed at teen-agers for the Marin Art and Garden Fair in Ross, June 30- July 4.

The booth will have a Fourth of July flavor, with a picnic table and record player ready to go.

Groups from the high school who are planning the booth are the Boxed-In Deuces and the Bakers Dozen. Proceeds from any awards for the exhibit will go to YMCA World Service.

Arizona Graduate

Paul Boyd Northrup of San Rafael was among the students who graduated from Arizona State University at Tempe in its 74th annual commencement exercises. Northrup, of 205 Bret Harte Road, received a bachelor of science in engineering degree.

Accountants Name San Rafael Man

Benton C. Coit of 52 Kinross Drive, San Rafael, was elected to the board of directors of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants at its convention in Sacramento.

Edgar H. Holton of 13 Heather Way, Mill Valley, described how auditors may profit by use of new portable cordless sound equipment and other improvements in the sound recording field.

Peter Helms of 139 Deer Hollow, San Anselmo, also attended the meeting.

USDA CHOICE

Here is mouth-watering beef, superior in flavor and tenderness to any ever before made available to families in Marin County. The Frozen Food Guild division of Budget Savers, Inc. is the ONLY FIRM IN THE AREA actually bringing USDA Choice Kansas Corn-fed steer beef.

WHAT IS KANSAS CORN FED STEER BEEF? Why is it superior to any other kind of beef? First, Kansas steers are never allowed to roam the range. As soon as they are weaned they begin their diet of midwest corn under controlled feeding conditions for which Kansas beef is famous. Their growth is uniform, the distribution of fat is even and the meat is well marbled and tender. Range fed beef that is fattened for market a few weeks before slaughter tends to concentrate the fat in layers rather than in even distribution throughout the meat.
